PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Karen and I did lots of travelling last month, blending an opportunity to catch up socially while promoting both the Society and the upcoming Convention.

At Whyalla we had a wonderful time with the Whyalla Twirlers, they have a great fun attitude. We returned to Adelaide just in time for Scoot Back's 7th Birthday, had a ball on the floor and some very good tucker.

Then we headed down to Mount Gambier. Allabout Squares have a very interesting venue and floor, with entertaining dancers especially Hazel and Ken. I particularly enjoyed the BBQ.

The following night Pine City Twirlers was good fun, good floor and friendly people, we had a lively time.

We thoroughly recommend the Whistling Cat Cafe in the Mount, Had a very sociable time and do say hello to Julie and Kevin when visiting.

Our Bastille dance at Marion RSL was well attended with good tucker provided by the Marion RSL and marvelous dancing. Thank you to all our talented callers for keeping us entertained and on our toes.

Many thanks Murray Dempsey

LOCAL residents are being encouraged to embrace square dancing next month, with around 100 dancers set to descend on Hewett for the South Australian Square Dance Society's 43rd State Convention

SASDS COMMITTEE NEWS

At our June meeting we were pleased to approve payment of learners grants to two Clubs, one of the Society's important functions is to help Clubs financially with the promotion of new learners classes as this can be an expensive process.

The new Society membership year has got off to a great start with 28 new members joining us, thanks to Murray and Karen who have been busy promoting us.

Also if you happened to have received Julys Round Up in print when you renewed for the email version don't be concerned, we are easing our way into the new process which has kicked in fully this edition.

Finally the committee were thrilled to receive a proposal from Acey Squares to run the 2019 State Convention, this is a Club that has traditionally hosted great birthday weekends and I am positive will do a terrific job organising our annual gathering.

Cheers

Stephen

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

With this edition of Round Up the Society has fully implemented the production of the emailed version of the magazine, if we haven't quite reflected your membership selection correctly please talk to your Club representative or contact our Membership Officer Karen Dempsey so we can sort out the bugs.

Also if you happen to find that receiving Round Up by email does not suit you, you can change back to a printed copy by converting your membership type, for Round Up via your Club this is only an additional $10 or $20 if posted to you, again speak to your Club representative or Karen.

The red, white and blue colours feature significantly in this issue, Outlaws enjoyed an American night, Sunset Twirlers a French night and finally the SACA/SASDS Bastille themed dance, Our own French representative Jacqueline Baumgartner thrilled dancers with her rendition of the French national anthem and was happy to talk all things French during the night.

This edition also includes a life history of Colin Huddleston, a Caller who many of us remember.

The next couple of months contain many special events, This month Acey Squares birthday weekend and our State Convention, next month continues the celebrations with Yorke Promenaders 3rd birthday, Adelaide Outlaws 33rd birthday and the SARDA Dance Festival.

Enjoy

Stephen

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS

Hi everyone. Well our learners' intake has been going well as we welcome a new group into the wonderful journey of discovering square dancing. Some came from the Charity Dance, some from word of mouth and all seem to be enjoying the experience.

Our American Night in early July was a celebration of colour and things American. Great outfits worn by our dancers to suit the theme and a wonderful supper including hot dogs, apple pies & donuts. Thanks to all who came and joined in.

Two functions coming up in September - our Fathers' Day dance early in the month where gentlemen members are granted complimentary admission and we enjoy some pre dance drinks. Blue will be the theme.

Later on that month we turn 33! Yes, our 33rd Birthday comes around. This year the theme will be Rock'n'Roll so dress like it was the 1950s. We will have a mixed program of Plus and Mainstream and you are all invited. Note the date this year - a week earlier than usual. Oh, and it will be a basket supper too. Love to see you there!

Finally - our Learn Plus sessions will start in August - see the advert. If anyone is interested please contact Graham or Dawn.

JVC Square Dance The last two weeks of June saw our group wondering if we could see a square. Thanks to all those who made it possible to dance by supporting us.

With JVC Square Dance being closed in July Jacqueline and I were planning to have a trip away. But the dentist decided to change our plans and we have ended up busier than ever with visits to Paddle Steamer Squares, Sunset Twirlers and then the SASDS/SACA Combined Bastille Dance keeping us on the hop.

Paddlesteamers had a great American Night – Sunset Twirlers had an interesting French Night [Jacqueline and I as special guests – thank you Les and Anne]. Then along came the Bastille Dance with Rounds and Plus in the afternoon then Mainstream in the evening with eight squares keeping the excitement going – even three squares left for the last dance – congratulations to the organising Committee and especially to Jacqueline for the decorations provided, the French Cake and the French National Anthem in Song.

Happy Dancing Everyone
Jacqueline and John

It dawned on me in mid July that our club birthday is only a few weeks away. Where has this year gone one asks ? Time does not stand still.

Looking forward to catching up with dancers for our 12th birthday, and if not in Naracoorte we will see you in Hewitt. Safe travels. Keep warm, don't worry, be happy.

Acey Squares.

Our Sausage Sizzle night was a huge success with a tasty hot supper had by all. Was absolutely brilliant to have several visitors join us, Scotty, Neil, Carolyn, Karen, Murray and Rose. Thanks to Scotty for his contribution to the calling during the evening, was much appreciated.

Beginners are still continuing along nicely thanks to our patient angels. Some of our dancers are certainly keeping warm in our dance shed by coming dressed in their own unique and cute style! Which brings me to my next interesting item, a blue elephant was recently spotted on the dance floor?! We have our usual scheduled break during the school holidays with a couple of birthdays popping up whilst we are away. Many happy returns this month to Amy and Peter. The Two Amigos

The past couple of months have been pretty quiet and our numbers have been down with Graham & Bev clocking up miles in their motor-home in Queensland, Harry & Hennie on a tour and Roger taking off to Darwin for three weeks. We did manage to keep dancing a square every night with the men getting plenty of exercise having to dance every tip. Roger was forgiven for his foray up to Darwin as he brought back his grandkids, Keiko & Darcy, with him. It was great to have them back dancing with us for a couple of weeks.

Scotty has been on the move, travelling over to Whyalla with Jeff Seidel for their dance and he also went down to Mt Gambier and Naracoorte the following weekend to promote the State Convention coming up in August. Sounds like the Whyalla dance was a big success and they had a ball down the South East. We are looking forward to State Convention next month....it will soon be upon us. The week following the State Convention will be our third birthday so it looks like we will have a hectic few weeks coming up. A few of us headed down to Adelaide for the Combined SASDS/SACA Dance to catch up with old acquaintances there.

Another bit of news is that we have been fortunate in having Keith Lethbridge come over and join us for the Weda Helawi Halfway Dance to be held in Port Parham on the 20th October. This dance is being organised by the Yorke Promenaders and Wild Frontier and will be open to all that would like to attend. We will have some more information on this dance in the coming month. Cheers & happy dancing until next time. Scotty

WOW! It's been cold for winter nights in Adelaide. We are a bit low on numbers, as a lot of dancers have gone away or are going away to warmer weather, can't wait for their return.

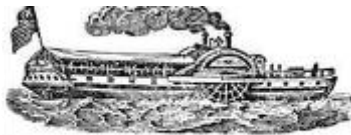

Just some reminders about dates coming up.

11th August - Saturday dance A's and C's 7.00pm start, Plus 8.00pm, dancers please bring supper!

28th August—Kannella closed Tuesday after the convention

Another reminder that every first Tuesday of each month we have supper .

April

THE PADDLE STEAMER SQUARES DANCE CLUB INC

We were privileged to have Karen & Murray and Carolyn & Neil from Victoria visit us which added to our dancing & entertainment. Our International theme was well represented with costumes from Spain, Italy, Scotland, France, Romania & Saudi Arabia although the latter reminded us of a lost Wiseman looking for the others. We also thought that we'd never hear it said on a theme night that they missed wearing their flouncy square dance petticoat!!! Our President status increased on that night with visits from Leon, after recovering from surgery & Zaree who was accompanied by her son, Kingsley & partner Frances.

The following dance night found Milton presenting some upbeat brackets to improve our pace, challenge our step combinations and to keep us warm. Our novice caller, Ros, is moving ahead in 'leaps & bounds' with complex strategies being undertaken to understand the art of calling.

Plus dance is being held at various members' homes on as many Saturdays as we can arrange. We travel to Encounter Bay, Mount Compass & Willunga.

Les was keen to call moves from different positions with a two couple set, the other week. He soon changed his mind & we soon learnt that we had no idea where we were within the set, let alone which direction was accurate.

Not only are we Square Dancers but also super sleuths to solve the case of the missing coffee which progressed into the missing tea bags, sugar & hot chocolate. Registration information for our 10th Birthday weekend from 12th-14th October, 2018 is now being distributed. Hopefully you have seen the booklet & are able to join us.

Gail

Our mainsteam dancers are back whirling and twirling on Monday nights much to everyone's delight. For most, it has been over two months since we did any serious dancing. Basic dancing on Friday nights continues as usual.

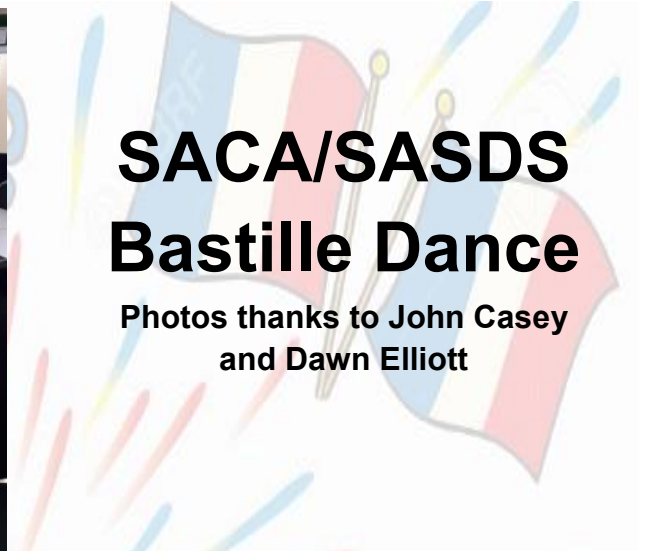

Sixteen members attended our monthly pub crawl lunch and all had a good meal and chat.

Plans for our 35th birthday celebrations are continuing with invitation letters being sent to Cuers and Callers. Registration pamphlets are being posted to all those dancers that live away.

Once again Jenny and Gerry are enjoying the sunshine, how fortunate to be away from this cold weather. The weather and too many Crows and Power matches on a Friday night are keeping the numbers down.

It has been good to see Jeannette Buckland back dancing with us after many years, since her husband Frank died. Our congratulations to Candice and James Stavast on the birth of their daughter Iliana Grace. The family braved the long journey with their 5-day old baby so that their daughters didn't have to miss another learners class. That's dedication.

By the time this goes to print we will have had our visit from Scoot Back Squares for our annual hot soup night, which is always an enjoyable night. We look forward to seeing again our dancers recently returned from their extended trip to W.A. Hopefully Dawn will have recovered from her nasty fall.

On a personal note my family and I would like to thank all the dancers who attended Ken's Memorial Service, sent cards, emails and phoned, too many to thank personally, but very much appreciated.

Happy dancing everyone, Pat.

SUNSET TWIRLERS

Well, the weather, sickness and holidays have all taken their toll on numbers recently, however we have survived. Diana and Phyl are recovering from a bout of bronchitis, Peter & Stella have both been crook, Terri had her leg done, Roy and Cheryl are away up north in the territory, Dennis has been back to England and has returned safely, Gary & Sally have been to Europe and also returned safely.

Our special night for July was a French Night theme and was well attended and a great night. Guests of honour were Jacqueline (because she is French) & John. Jacqui sang the French National Anthem and all the singing calls were red, white, blue or love. Thank you to all who dressed the theme.

Happy dancing from Anne & Les

We welcomed another new dancer Linda Johnson to the fold. All our new ones are looking forward to dancing some Rounds at the upcoming Convention, and our Festival coming up in September, as I do hope our older dancers will.

It wasn't long ago we were complaining it was too hot for dancing, but I don't know which is better that way or now it's too cold, [God Bless my little radiator that sits comfortably behind me], but thankfully they come hot or cold. It was great to have Susan and Alistair back after their nine week jaunt around the world. I want say to thank you to Terri and Ralph for their help, they are fast becoming my new demonstrators. As I slip slightly off the rails, Terri will kindly put me right back. Also a big thank you to Pat Markwick who has now taken on the Kitchen after Rose had to give her dancing up due to ill health, and she is so versatile, dancing the Ladies part in one session and next she is taking the mans part. So hoping to see you at the Convention,
Until next month
Regards Thelma

WHYALLA TWIRLERS

We had a wonderful night with Jeff Seidel, Susan and "Scotty". Thanks for staying with us too.

The excitement of dancing has grown and really flourished since 16th June. Maarty has been to Adelaide and danced with his sister at 'The Outlaws'. Girls have travelled over to Port Pirie to buy material to make outfits. In general there is a buzz within our ranks! We have had to miss a couple of Saturday afternoons, due to our family commitments, and in August we will be closing for 4 weeks while David and I are on holidays. We hope you enjoy some of the photos that were taken in June - maybe you can even recognise yourself. See you again in September, and once again- ...'Happy Dancing" Shirley and David

COLIN ANDREW HUDDLESTON

“SA’s Mr Square Dance”, “Cuddles”, “Caller Col”, Square Dance Calling Legend”

Early Days

Colin was born on 1st May 1914 at Whyalla. He was the third of four children born to Oscar and Susan Huddleston. The family lived in Iron Knob. His mother died in 1924 and his father died two years later.

He moved to Eurelia where he was cared for by his grandparents and where he soon developed a reputation as a fine young sportsman in the town and for the town. He received his Qualifying Certificate at age 13 and immediately left school to work on a number of farms in and around Eurelia.

In his late teens he moved further north where he worked on Beltana Station and later patrolled the dog-proof fence separating Beltana Station, Myrtle Springs and Ediacara.

His “home” was a small hut at a point along the fence, miles from anywhere. His and his colleagues’ huts were separated by long distances and they were permitted to spend a long weekend together at the homestead just once a month. To quote Colin...”Although at times it was a very lonely life, and at times I would not see another person for a month, I enjoyed my life in the bush, and no better friend could a man have than a real “bushy”. Those were the days when you shared your damper and anything else you had with a swaggy or any other unfortunate person you came across, carrying their swags and trying to find work.

“During my stay on the Station I used to listen to as much country music as I could get in my little crystal wireless and if any country singers or entertainers came up north it was nothing to get on a camel and ride many miles to attend such an event, and even to dances that may be held anywhere within a radius of 30 miles

Colin left station life in the early thirties to join a railway gang on the Adelaide – Alice Springs railway line, fettling and generally keeping the line operable..

Settling Down

He left the far north in 1936 and moved to Adelaide where he married long-time girlfriend Sophie Kaerger, who was also from Eurelia. He started work with GMH at Woodville. After applying, unsuccessfully, to join the Army, the Navy and the Air Force, he took a position at the Islington Railway Workshops which manufactured equipment for all three. Post war he joined the E&WS Department serving as a storeman until retirement.

Colin and Sophie initially lived in Alberton, bringing, Joan, Merrilyn and Barry into the world, moving to Ferryden Park in 1951.

Getting Into Square Dancing

Colin spent a few weeks laid up in the Royal Adelaide Hospital in 1953 recovering from a duodenal ulcer. At that time square dancing was becoming popular in South Australia and the outstanding Victorian square dance Caller, Jim Vickers-Willis, was attracting crowds at the Palais Royal in North Terrace, opposite the RAH.

He had become interested in square dancing and formed the view that it was the most friendly form of dance in the world; it was family oriented and was not subject to the "generation gap". Teenagers regularly danced within sets with age groups in their fifties and sixties, and he visualised complete families becoming interested – and that's just what happened.

While lying in his hospital bed, the sounds of Jim Vickers-Willis and happy square dancers enjoying themselves "turned him on". Following his release from hospital he gathered seven friends and joined an established club, participating in a contest which his "set" won and was featured on the front page of The Advertiser! Shortly after he decided that he had what it would take to become a caller and in August 1953 he started his own club. It grew rapidly and soon became the leading club in Adelaide and surrounds.

Hitting the Big Time

The advent of television in the late fifties opened a new chapter in Colin's life. He and his square dancers became a regular part of Reg Lindsay's Country and Western Hour, which went national and was even shown overseas. The program ran for almost nine years during which Colin and his sets made around 500 appearances.

It led to Colin and Reg becoming very close friends, touring Australia on numerous occasions, performing for large audiences in regional cities and in outback areas.

During the years Colin estimates he'd designed and sung square dance routines to at least 1000 country music tunes and had taught somewhere between 25,000 and 30,000 people the art of square dancing.

Slowing Down

In later life Colin withdrew from running his own Club but spent much time calling to and teaching any groups wishing to learn and/or improve their square dancing skills. He taught for several church groups, at schools, birthday parties and more.

Also, in later life, he pondered on the whereabouts of the thousands of people who had made square dancing a big part of their entire lives. He formed the view that in square dancing there are more and more steps and movements to learn and to quote him "possibly after dancing for a life time you still have not finished learning, and the majority of people do not want to have to keep on going every week to learn some new movement. You don't have to do this in old-time dancing or in discos or in rock".

The End of an Era.....

Colin passed away on 6th July 1988 at the Flinders Medical Centre, aged 74, as a result of a heart attack.

Thanks to Ollie & Joan Clark (nee Huddleston) for this article, Joan is Colin's eldest daughter
