PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

Now it's August the State Convention is just around the corner. Chris and Alan are doing a fantastic job making sure everyone has a good time, both on and off the floor. Their committee is going to great lengths to ensure everyone enjoys themselves before, during and after the convention. Make sure you have bought your weekend ticket via Trybooking. Come and meet Guest Caller Howard Cockburn, he is very friendly and has been calling for many years.

The second Wednesday of the month Adelaide Outlaw's have a social night out. This month the dancers went to Yeti Nepalese Restaurant on Goodwood Road, Goodwood. A good time was enjoyed by all. We welcomed Wendy and Ken Scott from Naracoorte. All dancers are welcome to join in these dinner nights.

The Society Dance at the RSL Marion as always was an enjoyable night out catching up with friends from other Clubs who we don't get to see often. We also make new friends as the learner's graduate from their Clubs and join us for the first time at this great social event. Thank you to the callers and cuers who did an outstanding job for the night.

Thank you

Murray Dempsey

SASDS COMMITTEE NEWS

Quite a bit of the last meeting was taken up with final arrangements for the Callers & Society Dinner Dance. Everyone attending appeared to be having a fun time and all our callers and cuers were fantastic. In addition, our hardworking State Convention conveners Chris & Alan travelled up from Naracoorte. They gave a presentation on their progress and some of the activities they have planned – it sounds brilliant – don't miss out!!

The Learner Books have now arrived from the USA and most Clubs are interested in obtaining some for their new dancers. The cost to Cubs will be $5.00 per copy after SASDS agreed to subsidise the purchase price for Clubs. Clubs who still have an entitlement from the National Learners Fund can use the fund to cover the purchase price fully. Other Clubs can use their annual SASDS Learner Grant to reduce the cost by 50%.

SASDS Memberships are rolling in too. It's great to see so many dancers being a part of the SA Square Dancing community. Thanks to Stephen, we get many compliments on Round Up, especially the on-line colour version.

We have decided to put a reminder with a link in Round Up every time the quarterly National Review is published. That will make it easier for everyone to keep up with news from around the country.

In the last edition I mentioned that a vote to elect the Committee for the 63rd National Square Dance Convention in 2022 would take place at the 13th July Dinner Dance. However, a concern was expressed that insufficient notice of this had been given to all SA dancers. Consequently, Graham Elliott introduced the working party who helped him to prepare the bid and the vote will occur during the State Convention in Naracoorte. Please refer to the notice of this meeting in this Round Up.

Hoping to see you there,

FROM THE EDITORS DESK

As winter still looms large across the State many Clubs have reported on food related activities this month to keep their dancers keen and fueled up to dance through the rest of winter. Chris and Alan, our Convention conveners, have supplied this issue with the complete Click Goes The Shears lyrics so we can all be in fine voice on the Saturday theme night. Practice, practice, practice....

Happy reading, Stephen

JOHN SENDY

We recently received news that past Society President John Sendy passed away on the 14th July.

John was President of the Society from 1998 to 2003, and made significant contributions to the Square Dancing community through his work including organising and running the last Allemanders learners class, founding the Rebels Square Dance Club and being instrumental in assisting Noes Noesbar starting Leisurely Squares in 1999, a Club that ran for 15 years.

Our condolences to all family members.

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS

“Merci” to all those who joined us for the French Night in July. A wonderful evening of red, white and blues, berets and scarves with some croissants and pastries added in. French music capped it all off just nicely. Great to see our learners entering the spirit by dressing to the theme.

Last month’s dinner was held at the “Yeti” Nepalese Restaurant on Goodwood Road and a large group of us enjoyed quite a varied menu of meats, spices and vegetables.

During the last month we also took the opportunity of a free “High Tea” at a Tanunda furniture store. Quite a group of our members made their way to the Barossa and had an entertaining afternoon. We were happy to oblige by browsing the furniture in the store.

Coming up next after the State Convention is our Fathers’ Day Dance in September. This time the men (members) will come in for free. Blue is the colour theme and we’ll be enjoying a selection of savouries at supper time.

We hope you are making plans to join us for our 34th Birthday in September. It is a 20’s theme so flapper skirts, gangster suits, fedoras, boas etc are encouraged for costuming.

Welcome home to Stuart and Bernie following their few weeks overseas. Nice to see you both home safe and sound and hearing your great adventures.

By time you are reading this our Xmas in July event will have been held. A big thank you to Wendy and her team for organising a great night with lots of food, dancing and festivities.

It is hard to believe that this time twelve months ago we mooted the idea of holding a state convention in the South East of our wonderful state. Time has flown and the convention is upon us. We look forward to presenting a fabulous, relaxing weekend for everyone. A huge thank you to our supporters and helpers, we couldn't have done it without you.

Happy 13th birthday to us also, hope you are able to join in the celebrations. Even though early bird has closed there is still plenty of time before 22nd August to register for our birthday and the SA state convention. See information in this last edition of Roundup prior to the convention.

Safe travels.

Chris & Alan

DIGGERS DELIGHTS

This month Chris sent me a pictorial report, a new challenge for the Editor!! Ed

Learners are going great guns.

Chris Wood.

Kannella dancers are currently all back from various holidays locally and overseas. We are missing Kevin since his surgery but he called in the other night for some social chatter, an all important part of our Fitness, Fun and Friendship formula. We are looking forward to our upcoming soup night, always welcome on these wintery nights.

And don't forget that for A and C dancers there is a special night on August 10th.

Maryka

JVC Square Dance

JVC Square Dance had a wonderful last two weeks in June before our July break. We danced a full square both weeks and I had to dance as a lady one week and we had a full square with one man over on June 25 – thanks to Karen and Carl who came all the way from Adelaide to make our last day special.

We will be distributing the second half of our flyers prior to the first dance back on the 6th August – it seems we already have a couple of new starters

Happy Dancing Everyone Jacqueline and John.

<https://jvcsquaredance.com>

It was a cold and wet night for our mid year dinner at Fasta Pasta. Thirty of us enjoyed various meals with a few of us taking doggy bags home. We made it back to the hall in time for learners to start and for some of us to work off some of our meal. The weather had other ideas when we are suddenly belted with hail on the roof, made it very tricky to hear the calls but it didn't last long!

As the weeks are passing quickly I can't believe we are almost into August. By the time you read this we would have enjoyed our annual soup night at Wild Frontier.

Safe travels to everyone heading to Naracoorte for the State convention. Also happy birthday to Acey Squares.

Keep warm and have fun, Do Square Lady

SATURDAY THEME NIGHT

- CLICK GO THE SHEARS -

Click Go The Shears, Boys

Out on the board the old shearer stands,
Grasping his shears in his long, bony hands,
Fixed is his gaze on a bare-bellied 'joe'
Glory if he gets her, won't he make the ringer go.

Baa Baa
Black sheep
Have you any wool

Chorus:

*Click go the shears, boys, click, click, click,
Wide is his blow and his hands move quick,
The ringer looks around and is beaten by a blow,
And curses the old snagger with the blue-bellied 'joe'*

In the middle of the floor in his cane bottomed chair
Is the boss of the board, with eyes everywhere;
Notes well each fleece as it comes to the screen,
Paying strict attention if it's taken off clean.

Mary had a little lamb
Its fleece was white as snow

The colonial-experience man, he is there, of course,
With his shiny leggin's, just got off his horse,
Casting round his eye like a real connoisseur,
Whistling the old tune, 'I'm the perfect lure'.

Now Mister Newchum for to begin,
In number seven paddock bring all the sheep in;
Don't leave none behind, whatever you may do,
And then you'll be fit for a jackaroo.

*The tarboy is there, awaiting in demand,
With his blackened tar pot, and his tarry hand;
Sees one old sheep with a cut upon its back,
Hears what he's waiting for, 'Tar here Jack!'*

Has anyone seen

Little Bo Peep

She has lost her sheep

And doesn't know where to find them

Shearing is all over and we've all got our cheques,
Roll up your swags for we're off on the tracks;
The first pub we come to, it's there we'll have a spree,
And everyone that comes along it's, 'come and drink with me!'

Down by the bar the old shearer stands,
Grasping his glass in his thin bony hands;
Fixed is his gaze on a green-painted keg,
Glory, he'll get down on it, ere he stirs a peg.

There we leave him standing, shouting for all hands,
Whilst all around him every shouter stands;
His eyes are on the cask, which is now lowering fast,
He works hard, he drinks hard, and goes to hell at last!

THE PADDLE STEAMER SQUARES DANCE CLUB INC

We've managed two Theme Nights recently with the first being 'Down Memory Lane' & the second was a 'Soup Night'.

Apart from our attire representing a specific memory, Deidre displayed an array of items linked to our past.

These included butter pats, marbles, knuckle bones, a pianola roll,

Amscol cream, metal milkshake container, nut cracker bowl & hammer, children's annual and even a Colin Huddleston album.

The soup night was welcomed as a different approach to supper, although Les was starving & really wanted to have it sooner!!!! Thanks to Penny for manufacturing our donated tins of soup into a Master Chef quality supper.

With Milton calling, Judy requested the Grand Colonel Spin which some members had not danced but it didn't take them long before we were all totally coordinated and managed all the way through without any mishaps.

Thanks to Ingrid, Greg, Pam & Wayne who have joined us recently on a Friday night. We always appreciate their style, energy & expertise.

We all looked bewildered when Ros took the microphone to call. Two couples were asked to wear fluoro safety jackets within the square formation. Rather than the result of when a trainee caller attends 'Caller School' then comes back and tries all their new strategies on you, it was a couple identification strategy that Ros wanted to try. It worked. Her calling is improving in 'leaps & bounds'.

No formal report this month from Whyalla as too many dancers sick or away at the moment. Shirley and David are looking forward to dancing with us in Naracoorte. Ed

SUNSET TWIRLERS

Welcome to our club news.

My apologies' to Diana because I (as in Les) forgot to mention her valuable contribution to the Carnival Night in last month's news. Thank you Diana for doing the flyer for the noticeboard, decorations as well as making the fairy floss.

Our beginners class from 2018 have now graduated, congratulations to Mike, Vicky & Maarty who graduated on 23 July. This class also included Terry (lady) who learnt the left hand dancer role and Ingrid who learnt the right hand dancer role.

Now we have graduated the class of 2019, we commenced a new learners class on 30 July. Whilst the class has started we are keeping it open through to September so it is not too late to start.

Anne & Les travelled to Naracoorte to attend the Acey Squares/Pine City Twirlers the Christmas in July dance and also attended a State Convention meeting as well. Thank you for the great night of dancing. Looking forward to the State Convention. We also held our Spanish Night in July but more on that next month.

Happy Dancing from Anne & Les

Hello, we hope everyone is managing to keep warm – even though it's tempting to stay by the fire, don't forget dancing helps. Of course, hot soup also helps and by the time you read this we will have enjoyed the company of Scoot Back Squares at our Hot Soup Night – hope you were able to join us.

Well done to SASDS, SACA and all involved for a very enjoyable evening at their dance in July. Jeff even enjoyed an opportunity to brush with royalty.

We hope everyone has a great time at the State Convention, please travel safely. Coming up the following week will be our Father's Day dance. As usual our men members will receive free entry and all men will get a special door prize ticket. Cheese & wine will be an addition to the usual basket supper and we look forward to you being able to join us for the evening; everyone welcome.

A reminder for your diaries that we will be closed on September 27th to visit Scoot Back Squares for their Footy Night.

For those that like to plan ahead, Burra is the destination for our weekend away next March.

Happy dancing, Jenny.

This month we have been hit with a few cases of the blues, So numbers have been down for a while, but as usual they will bounce back. My apologies for not attending the Saturday Night dance [I have not missed many in all my time]. But my friend of 62 years celebrated her 90th Birthday, an occasion I had to attend. I hope you all had a good night.

The next occasion will be the State Convention where I do hope we will see some of you on the dance floor for some Round Dancing. As I have always said "You get the best of both worlds when you Square and Round Dance" So with nothing else to report I'll say see some of you at the Convention.

Till next time Regards Thelma

We have had the pleasure of having Roger's grandchildren, Keiko and Darcy, down from Darwin for the school holidays. They have danced with us for the past three weeks both picking up where they left off six months ago without much hesitation at all. Keiko and Darcy head back to Darwin next week and we wish them well until they get back next time.

We've had our good nights and bad (cold weather and the flu has kept the numbers down) but have managed to have a set on the floor every night.

We have four of our members preparing to head down to Naracoorte for the State Convention in August. They are anticipating a great weekend and some great dancing.

A week after the Convention it will be our 4th Birthday. If you are free, and able to make it up to Kadina we would love to have you visit us.

'Till next time, Happy Dancing

Scotty

Something new on our Society website is an video recorded at our recent combined dance with the SA callers Association. Our Vice President Diana Waters has included a view of the dancers legs during the dance. This legs sequence is to show the idea of theatrical, Baz Luhrmann-esque fun, and let potential new dancers see that there's no fancy footwork in square dancing.
