HAVE YOUR SAY!

On how your Society is run

A subcommittee has been established to review our Constitution (Rules of Association)

Your comments welcome – any burning issues you would like considered please contact the Sub Committee Secretary or Chairperson

- Peter (Scotty) Scott (Secretary) sscotty500@gmail.com 0419864748
- Graham Burgan
(Chairperson) SASDS7publicityofficer@gmail.com 0427973226

Initial consideration has been given to ambiguities present in the current version by investigating the intent of the drafters of the current constitution.

The minimum changes that will be brought to members at the next General Meeting of the Society will seek to overcome these ambiguities, in addition two clauses required by ACNC – “Not for Profit” and a more detailed “Winding up” clause will be incorporated.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

I had a good time dancing at Sunset Twirlers down at Port Noarlunga recently, John Casey was calling as Les was on the crook side that night. The dancers still had a good time as John called to his usual high standard. Concern was expressed for Les's health given the current situation with Covid-19.

In March Wild Frontiers had their weekend away in Burra and we joined them on Saturday. Burra has heaps of history, things to see and do and very good tucker at the local pub. Enjoyed marvelous dancing at the hall, something about country towns brings out the best in everyone.

Bad news with the Coronavirus restrictions, threw a spanner in the works for everyone with dancing shutting down throughout the State for the duration. I'm finding it hard, miss being on the floor, the missus misses it too, she's driving me up the wall. Hope this social distancing finishes soon, maybe she'll let me back in the house.

I'm sad to say that the Port Broughton State Convention has been postponed until August next year due to the virus restrictions, you should check with your accommodation provider to see if you can roll it over for 2021. For those who have bought their tickets, no problems with Trybooking providing a refund or just roll over to next year, the convention Treasurer will be in contact with you soon

Hope you are all well, see you back on the dancefloor, when the virus is finished hopefully sometime this year.

Thank you

Murray Dempsey

SASDS COMMITTEE NEWS

A ZOOM meeting was the way to go this month for the Committee, all but four members were able to join it. Naturally we had a few technical difficulties, but with Scotty as 'host' we managed to get through a fair bit of the Agenda. It will become smoother!

As all clubs are closed members will not be asked to renew SASDS Membership at this stage. Current membership will carry on and fees will not be called for at the start of the new financial year. More information regarding membership will be passed on when possible.

It was decided unanimously that when the State Convention makes a profit, a donation should be made to the Callers and Round Dance Associations in appreciation of the contributions they both make to the success & enjoyment of the event.

A forum was held on February 29th to discuss revision of the Constitution. From those who expressed interest, a sub-committee has been formed with Graham Burgan as Chairperson.

The Society purchased a 1st Birthday Shield to present to Diggers Delight at their Birthday Dance, now on hold until the celebration can take place.

With the cancellation of the National Convention in the Blue Mountains, the NSDASA AGM is re-scheduled for May with a ZOOM meeting. The SA delegates will be Graham Burgan and Murray Dempsey.

Keep safe & well. Enjoy dancing around your living room!

Happy dancing,

Cheers, Pauline

FROM THE EDITORS DESK

Well this issue was certainly a challenge with so many clubs in recess, so I asked my regular contributors how they were filling their time during these times of restrictions, there is certainly a lot of tidying up happening!

Mishka the poodle has become accustomed to walks every evening, she even has watched me eat my dinner in anticipation and given me a nudge if it seems I'm not getting ready for the night walk. She's going to be in for a surprise when dancing recommences!

In this issue I've created a couple of puzzles to help keep your minds sharp.

Enjoy

STATE CONVENTION NEWS

Hello Square Dancers,

I'm very sad to say that the 45th State Square Dance Convention Committee has, regretfully, decided to postpone this year's convention until the 27th to 29th August next year, 2021. We were very much looking forward to putting together a great convention for you this year. However, the uncertainty caused by the coronavirus related restrictions mean that, understandably, we cannot continue our preparations to hold the convention in 2020 as planned, especially when not knowing when social distancing and other restrictions will be lifted and large gatherings allowed again.

We will contact all dancers who have already registered to offer a refund, or alternatively dancers may opt to retain their registration for next year.

It is strongly recommend that anyone who has booked accommodation contact their accommodation provider to discuss either a refund or transfer of their booking to next year. Several places have already been contacted in this regard, but it is important that you each follow this up to ensure that your individual requirements have been met.

Hope that we will all be back square dancing in the not-too-distant future. In the meantime, I trust that you and your family and friends remain safe and well.

Your 45th State Convention Convenor

Cnr Kings & Martins Roads

Plans are now well under way for Adelaide to host the 63rd Australian National Square Dance Convention in April 2022.

The last National we hosted was in 2015 and I'm sure many of you will remember the Cabaret theme and what a wonderful weekend that was. In 2022, we will be at the same venue in Parafield Gardens and our theme will be 50s Rock and Roll. It's a fun theme and we promise a memorable Convention.

As the host State, we look forward to you all not only joining us for this special weekend, but also giving you the chance to help out in some way. Be it marshals for the round-ups or Dressed Sets parade, helping set up the venue, promoting whilst on your own square dance trips or just telling all your friends. This will be SA's show and we look forward to working with you all to welcome visitors from all around Australia and Overseas.

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS

Hi everyone. It really is an unusual time as we all adjust to the new world. Like all clubs around the world, we will stay in recess until restrictions are lifted. Also we will need the hall landlords to make halls available again.

There are many ways for you to stay up to date and in touch with us during this period.

Check our website - www.adelaideoutlaws.com. On the front page we update the notice of our recess and restart plans. You can also look back through our videos and photos.

Facebook page - if you haven't done so, "like" our page. Just search for "Adelaide Outlaws Square Dance Club" or type in the address @squaredancingadelaide. We will continue to post updates there and you will then be notified of them.

For those who don't use computers or smartphones, we will text or call when we know the start up plans.

We hope you are enjoying our weekly videos that Graham is posting. It's just a bit of musical fun and a way of staying in touch. They're on our website under "What's Been Happening" and on our Facebook page.

What to do when you cannot travel interstate to a National convention ?

Grounded at home for Easter. Chris and Alan still taking annual leave and renovating an ensuite, strip, rebuild, tile, grout, measure, paint and more paint. Organise a plumber and electrician. Such a small room, such a big job. When that's finished, other projects to be finished include a retaining wall along the driveway at the front of the house. Oh and did I mention an apricot tree to be removed. We have finally decided it has seen better days.

We know a couple of our crew are still working hard at it. The wheels of industry need to keep turning. Our farmers are also still working, and when they are not, they are finding themselves at home, also catching up on those tasks that don't get done when one is out and about.

We see greater use of Facebook, text messaging and phone calls in this time of hibernation. Did you all see that amazing clip of Graham Elliott's on Facebook recently. We needed a good laugh to lighten the load.

Cheers for now, stay safe and well.

Chris, Alan and dancers.

I hope you are surviving your isolation. Of course at the time of writing we have no idea as to when we will resume. We just hope you all come back after so much time away. [Of course they dancers will]

So what have I been doing with no dancing or Ten Pin Bowling?

These past times have been the staple of my life, 34 years dancing, 59 years bowling, when you are on a good thing, stick to it they say.

Well I started by cleaning out ALL the drawers in my Round Dance Room with Journals, Syllabus's, Cue Sheet Books and single Cue Sheets dating back to 1989. That alone just about filled the yellow bin. Why did I keep all that stuff? I thought it was a good thing at the time. Then I tackled the Cassette tapes, there must be no fewer than 300 of them.

Where did I ever find the time to do all that? What a pity they are of no use today, but I have enjoyed listening to all the old dances that we used to do [34 years of memories]. Maybe one day I will learn how to put them on a USB stick. And then I might find time to do some decluttering outside of that room.

A lot of my time this week has been participating in the Round Dance A.G.M being conducted via the Computer. That has been an experience.

So until next time

Regards Thelma

During these unusual times when we are encouraged to “just stay at home “ many of us will be missing dancing and the fun, fitness and friendship that it offers. We are so privileged to be experiencing this pandemic at a time when we can be technologically connected to people across the globe. Many of us are connecting via video calls, Facebook and other platforms.

Some Square Dance callers are providing an opportunity for us to dance in the comfort of our home. We can join them too by logging in and joining other Square dancers across the globe dancing from their place of isolation. Thanks to Deirdre who sent me this link for Swan Valley Squares, in Perth, you can now see it on YouTube <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vFH8MYExo0E>

On Saturday we joined a dance that we learnt about via the Victorian Square Dancing Facebook group. The dance was led by Mike Dusoe and Ken Ritucci. It was great fun to see two other Victorian dancers and about forty others around the world all coming together in their homes and able to dance despite all the social distancing rules.

Why not give it a go.

Maryka

As there are no club activities to report on I am giving a personal report as Stephen asked for some insight into how we are keeping active while we are not dancing.

As well as missing dancing twice a week I am also missing my two exercise classes. Fortunately a friend told me about a program on Channel 44 called Move it or Lose It which I have been following every day. The program varies Tai Chi, Pilates, stretching exercises, today (April 17th) it was using weights and doing leg and core strengthening exercise.

I have done a few jobs in the house (cleaning out the pantry etc), and never ending weeding. About a year ago two houses at the back of my place were knocked down and six double storey units are now being built. One year on and no signs of them being completed so the weeds have come under my fence from the neglected gardens.

There have been lots of phone calls to and from family and friends, some were video calls, nice to see a face while talking. I have also been out on walks with family members to make sure I get enough exercise and vitamin D.

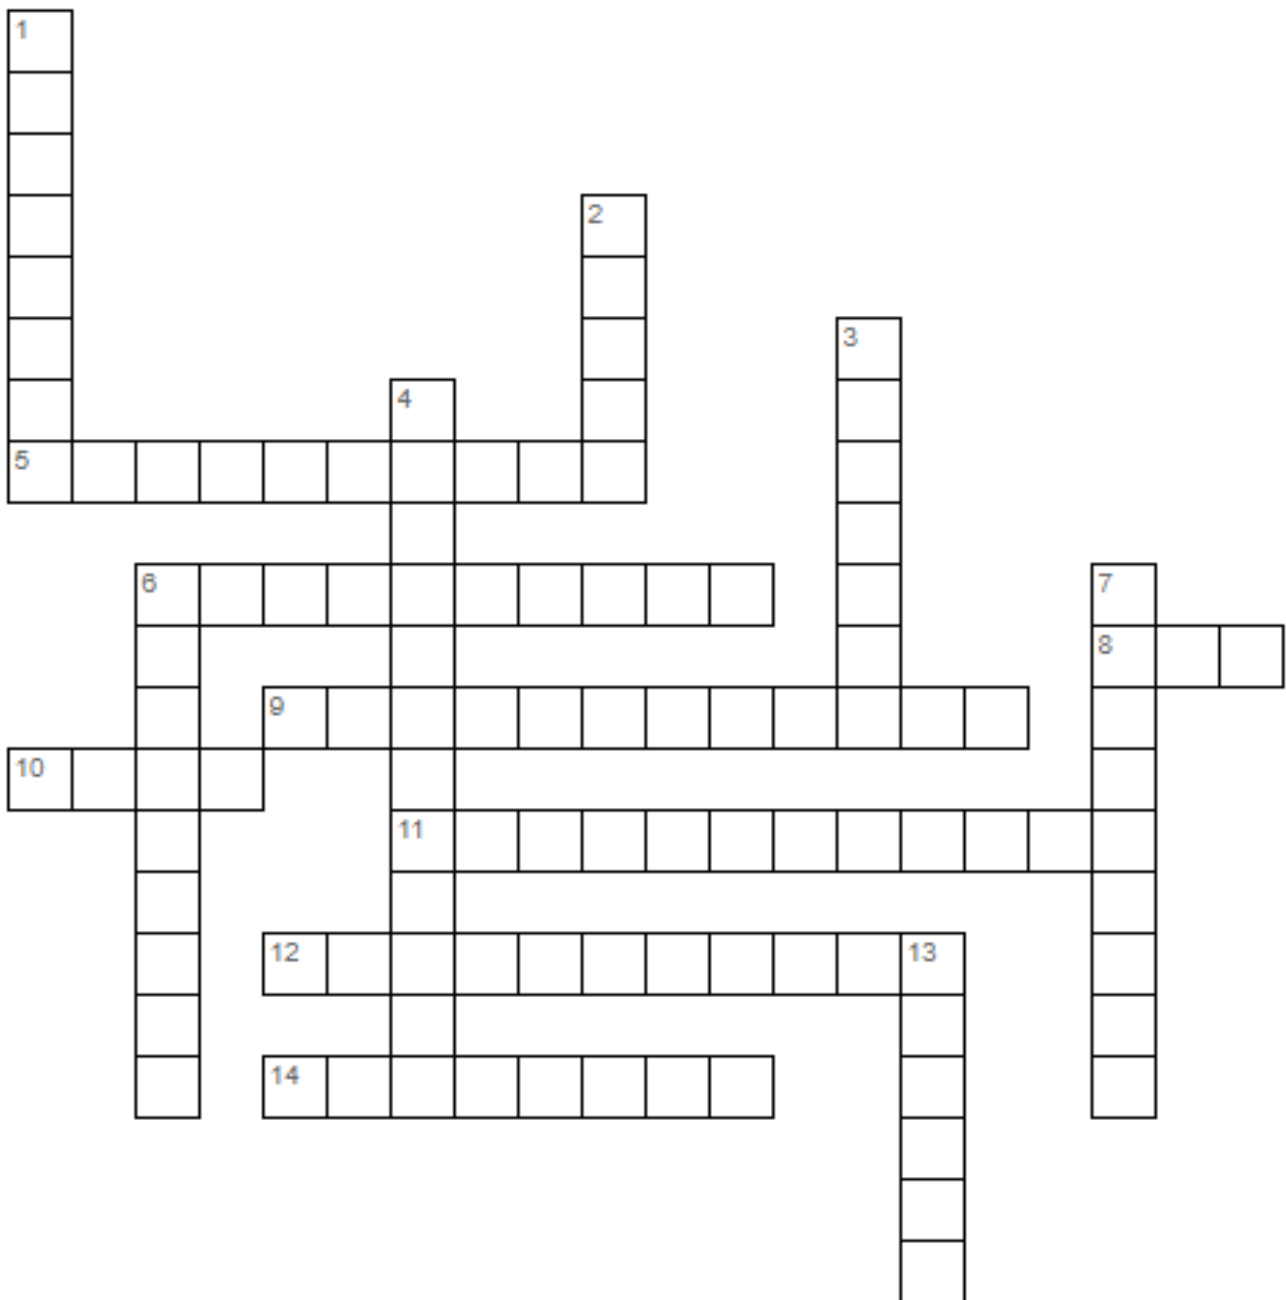

I hope everyone is keeping virus free, don't know anyone personally who has had it I am glad to say, hopefully it is not too long before we are all meeting on the dance floor again.

THE PADDLE STEAMER SQUARES DANCE CLUB INC

Firstly, thanks to Stephen & other article contributors who are able to keep us all informed while our Clubs are having a break. Our news relates to our members & how they have kept in touch, worked on projects, involved themselves in different activities & managed.

Through texts & emails it has been noted that one member suggested that her 'dogs legs are getting shorter' due to the numerous walks that were now on offer. Another member commented that she would be forced to take to walking at this time to keep her fitness level. Our resident 'comedian' keeps me entertained with Facebook posts which find me chuckling in the middle of the day with no one else around. There is also plenty of evidence that the 'old faithful', namely jigsaws are being given attention of late.

The best ever 'fun police', Ros & Penny took to some frivolity on Easter Saturday. Their element of surprise started with a cryptic text message, 'The Easter Bunny is very busy so the happy chooks are helping out. Put the light on and seek them out'. Following the instructions the front light went on, door opened & no one was there. My reply text was, 'Great! Need more clues'. 'Look harder. Find the chooks they lead you further', was the reply. Still perplexed another text came, 'Hurry up. It's freezing out here'. Out I go again & venture a little further only to scream when turning the corner of the house I meet up with Penny & Ros. They still had to point out the Easter chickens on the front steps & eggs further down in the side gardens!!!! What a laugh!!!

I've mended a table which has the leg even in length with the others but doesn't look straight to me. Anyway it serves the purpose of having the teddy bears sitting on it for when the local children go for their community initiated 'Teddy Bear Walks' as they can count mine in their tally. I even shredded my past life documents, obsolete official papers & reference material. Tragedy can strike while doing the 'Isolation Clean Out', when airing my corner interior decoration tall vase & flowers, a gust of wind blew it over. Grandies, Maya & Ava, sent Gran some Easter Basket decorations and also a template for an Easter Basket which I could make when I'd finished all my jobs.

Others have managed much more adventurous DIY. This has involved higher order thinking, precise use of tools & forward planning.

It certainly will be a celebration when we all take that first step & rejoin our Club members for our return to dance. Hopefully you are all managing & looking out for your dancing friends.

Gail

SUNSET TWIRLERS

There is an old saying from 'hero to zero' it certainly feels like that now over COVID 19. One day we were only talking about closing and within a matter of hours it became a reality.

Hopefully everybody is safe and well. We have not heard of anyone from either squares or round dancing who have contracted COVID 19 and lets hope it stays that way. Thank you all for your patience although we have no choice.

Our last dance on 16th March was our Harmony Day Square dance. Unfortunately Les was struck down with the flu (fortunately not COVID 19) and in everyone's best interest decided to stay home. Thank you to John Casey for calling that night and to all our dancers for getting into the theme and dressing in Orange. Thank you to Ingrid and Rose for organising the decorations and orange table cloths. We also welcomed Murray & Karen Dempsey who were promoting the State Convention.

Unfortunately we have postponed our 25th Birthday. We are not sure what will happen because with all the events being postponed there may not be enough time to do everything when restrictions are lifted. At this stage we are closed until further notice. So we can only say to all our dancers is to stay safe and we hope to see you all dancing again sooner rather than later we are still going to be here when it is all over.

Happy Dancing from Anne & Les

<http://sunsettwirlers.com/>

We were dancing with about one and half sets a week before going into recess. It is great to have a daytime club, some of us stay after dancing and have a meal at the RSL, I can recommend their curry if you like it hot! The social aspect of square dancing is important as well and we all look forward to when life is back to normal.

Our learners were doing so well. We had welcomed some more new learners. Thank you to the angels that come along to help them, I am sure the learners are helped by your experience.

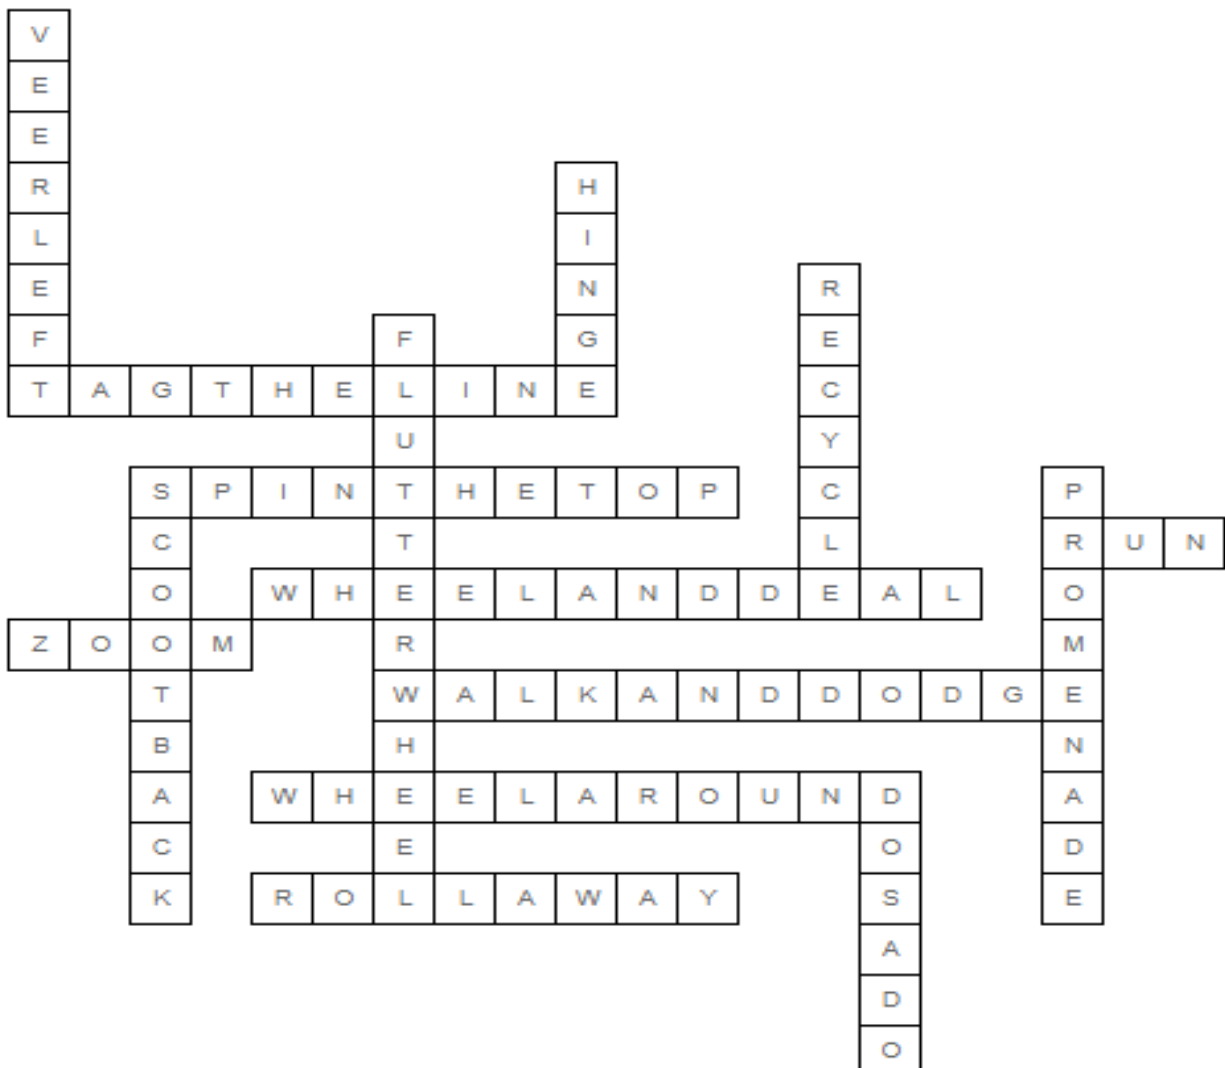

Join our group on Facebook to keep up with our status, search for Digger Delights.
