JULY 2020

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

G'day, the light at the end of the tunnel appears to be getting a little brighter. Every Monday I visit the website sa.gov.au and call 1800 253 787 to get the latest information on virus restrictions in S.A. I also call 1800 020 080 to find out what's going on at a National level. I would encourage you to do the same to get information straight from the horse's mouth rather than second hand. Right now I am waiting for clarification on how Square Dancing and Round Dancing are classified because there is a huge difference between indoor sports, social activities and fitness classes.

I believe that the clubs will let their members know what their plans are once they are clear regarding their various venues and what restrictions are required to maintain a safe dancing environment. So here's to luck and hoping we will be back on the floor soon.

On another note Sue Bottroff has recently retired from the committee. She will be missed greatly. Over the years she has served she has been an inspiration to all with her tireless efforts and opinions. She a great little lady much admired by me and everyone else.

I'm sad to say that Fay Russell, one of our long term dancers, has passed away recently. She was a member of Wild Frontier and JR's Squares, survived by her partner Barry. This marvelous lady will be missed.

Thank you

Murray Dempsey

SASDS COMMITTEE NEWS

Our committee was noticeably smaller at the May meeting. Sue Botroff has retired after serving quite a few years as Wild Frontier Rep. Sue has been a valuable contributor on our committee and a great helper at Society events. She will certainly be missed.

Also missing was Vice President Diana Waters who is on leave and as the State Convention is cancelled for this year, April Nicholls will not be attending until preparations start for 2021.

In spite of COVID 19, planning is continuing for the AGM to go ahead in October. Information is now being prepared for the August Round Up.

The Society now has a presence on the website SACommunity, South Australia's community information directory thanks to our Publicity Officer, Graham. It's a very informative page, well worth checking out and hopefully will create an interest from people looking for fun and fitness after the isolation is over.

An update of the front page of our website is being considered, so keep a look out for any changes. In addition there are plans afoot to have a Society Facebook page.

Finally, anyone wishing to put suggestions forward to the Constitution Review subcommittee can find details in this issue, which this month focusses on the Societies objectives

Keep safe & well,

FROM THE EDITORS DESK

As these strange times continue Round Up keeps up with its new format as we all endeavour to keep our Square Dance community in touch with each other.

There's more to think about regarding the constitution, some dancer news, yet another puzzle and Graham Elliott has written an useful article on the Taminations program, apparently you can even program your own choreography.

My new dog Addie is keeping me occupied learning standard obedience and some trick moves, not sure if we will ever get to the Dances With Dogs standard!

Enjoy

Stephen

The SASDS Constitution Sub-Committee needs your help.

We are currently reviewing the SASDS Constitution and want to ensure that any revisions we recommend provide the members the ownership and governance of their Society. To enable the Sub-Committee to consider all the possibilities and provide the best solutions we need your input.

We welcome any suggestions or recommendations that you think will enhance and allow you to manage your Society.

This is not limited to current members. If you know a dancer that has a suggestion that would encourage them or other dancers to join the Society please have them submit it to us for consideration.

Contacts:

Graham Burgan – Chairman: Ph.: 0427 973 226 - sasds7publicityofficer@gmail.com

Scotty Scott – Secretary: Ph.: 0419 864 748 – scotty.scott@internode.on.net

Last month we released, with the Round Up, the current Constitution where we removed the ambiguities so that we have a better defined composition of the rules that we can use until the next AGM.

We are now going through each of the clauses and looking at options that will give the members the best way to manage their Society. This month we are asking you to review Clause 3 OBJECTIVES. We have reviewed the current Clause and have a revised list objectives.

Have we missed something? PLEASE LET US KNOW.

The Sub-Committee has reviewed the Society "Objectives" and have added/modified the highlighted sub-sections as per below.

Is there something that we have overlooked that you feel should be included or removed. Please forward any comments that have to our Sub-Committee Secretary or Chairman.

3.        OBJECTIVES

- 3.1.        To encourage and foster the development of the Square Dance movement in South Australia.
- 3.2.        To publicise and create an appreciation of modern Square Dancing
- 3.3.        To organise the State Convention and Society/Combined Dances and encourage the clubs to organise and participate in joint club ventures.
- 3.4.        To develop friendship, unity between Square Dance Clubs, other Dance Clubs and dancers.
- 3.5.        To foster the formation of new Square Dance Clubs particularly in areas where no club exists.]
- 3.6.        To provide opportunities to assist clubs financially where possible, particularly with learner classes.
- 3.7.        To support and liaise with National and Interstate Square Dance bodies.

Next month we will release some more Constitution Clauses that we have been working on for your review and comments.

Your input is much appreciated as this will assist us greatly in compiling a document that that will fulfil the members needs and requirements.

Thank you for helping us to prepare your Constitution

The SASDS Constitution Review Sub-Committee.

Outlaws news from Graham and Dawn

Hi everyone. Whilst still in recess, we continue to produce weekly online "Loungeroom Sessions" to keep in touch and provide a reminder of how much fun square dancing is. You can find these both on our website (Menu at top of page) and on our Facebook page.

We have recently been issued the latest version of the Entertainment Book and this year they have advised that there will be no more hardcopy books - only digital versions. If you would like to purchase one of these, head to our website (Menu at top of page again) or our Facebook page and you can purchase a digital book on line. This means you need to have a smartphone to use the digital book.

We are continually monitoring the SA Health information sheets on their website to check for possibility of start-up and at the moment the physical distancing requirements are still in place. We'll keep in touch though.

Look after yourselves and we look forward to dancing with you all again.

Graham and Dawn

So what are our dancers up to?

The Diggers Delights Club continue their walks.

Those that can are walking once a week. We are going to all kinds of different places. From Semaphore, River Torrens, Zoo and to Belair National Park. Not all in one walk mind you! Dancers meet at 10am and walk and of course talk, then we enjoy coffee and lunch.

Chris

So what are our dancers up to?

Pat from Wild Frontier shares some news with us.

I am sure we are all hoping to get back to dancing soon, but it doesn't look like it will be in the near future. I have heard from family and friends in New Zealand that all their restrictions have been lifted, but they are keeping their borders closed. Hopefully we do not have another outbreak of Covid 19 after the Protest March was allowed to go ahead. Perhaps square dancers should march in protest against not being allowed to dance.

It was sad to hear of the passing of Doug's father and also of Barry Russel's wife Fay, a one time dancer at Wild Frontier. Our condolences to them and their families.

We are sorry to be losing Sue Bottroff as our club Society Rep. Because of ongoing health problems she feels it is something she can no longer do. She has done a fantastic job and we thank her for being our rep for a number of years.

Tim continues to have treatment following his recent surgery and we wish him well.

On a personal note I have been continuing to exercise through channel 44 every day. I also meet up with ladies from my Wednesday aerobics class and we do our exercising in a park. The weather has been kind to us so far. I also meet up with friends for a walk and are happy that we can have lunch together afterwards again.

I have enjoyed looking at the photos on Facebook of the daily walks by Chris Wood and Karen Dempsey. I have also been keeping in touch with dancers through emails and phone calls.

All for now, keep well everyone, Pat

So what are our dancers up to?

Isolation has certainly restricted my acquisition of news from our members but I have gathered some events through social media, emails, texts etc.

We've had Mother's Day with limited gatherings so that was different but still special to acknowledge all that us mothers have done & still do. On the day I ventured out to get coffee & loved the thoughtful message on the lid. Some people just go the 'extra mile'.

We have also been able to help John Murchland celebrate his 90th Birthday on 26th May thanks to his family for giving us the opportunity to be involved.

There were messages, videos, cards, gifts and photographs sent to the family to share with him on the day which they managed even though the residential care facility was in lockdown. He is now residing at Resthaven Malvern. John was still dancing at the beginning of 2020 & honestly I had no idea of his age. This just goes to show that dancing is socially interactive through all age levels and something that we can participate in with interest and enthusiasm.

We thank him for his valuable contribution to our Club. We'll certainly miss his quiet, sincere, genuine & pleasant manner. We wish him well as he adjusts to his new home.

Some members have been dancing in limited numbers with finger to finger holds & plenty of sanitiser on hand. We now all have arthritis in our little fingers!!!! Others have been out and about walking, riding their bikes and exercising at home with isolation projects.

Hopefully you are all adapting and managing our current situation. It certainly is going to be an awakening when the decision is made that dancing is able to resume.

Gail

So what are our dancers up to?

Maryka gives us food for thought

The question of the month- When do we dance again? When will our Pre Covid life return?

When we reach stage three conditions will life resume and dancing return back to normal, will our dancers return?

The questions posed will return a different answer for every dancer. Following Facebook discussions, the opinions are wide and varied. Some dancers are chaffing at the bit to return to regular dancing, others seek guidance from the strict guidelines presented by the SA Health Department. While others would not consider returning unless all dancers wear a face mask and or gloves, and finally those who will wait for a vaccine. Whatever their readiness will be, dancers may return in dribs and drabs.

As for Stephen and I, we are watching the continued growth of Virtual Dances where we can enjoy being with other dancers at home across the globe and keep our skills up to scratch.

Callerlab suggest that we may lose up to 60% of dancers during the next two years. These figures may seem extreme and perhaps American centric, but nonetheless there has never been a time when promotion of Square Dancing is more important. Recently I was approached to join a subcommittee of the National Square Dance Society, this subcommittee is focusing on Promotions at a National Level.

To this end a co-ordinated approach is intended to pool resources of both finances and personnel to develop advertising strategies. South Australia is well represented on the committee with Peter Scott, Graham Burgan, Diana Waters and myself. Diana has much to offer with her skills of artistic design and has offered her skills to develop a few concepts for a national flyer. A number of other ideas were floated to reach a variety of targeted audiences.

It is reassuring that a National approach has been undertaken to ensure that our pastime remains viable in the future.

Maryka

TAMINATIONS - Dance on your computer!

Keep sharp and entertained whilst not dancing!

Graham Elliott - May 2020

No doubt there are some dancers who are already familiar with this and most callers have used this at some time or other. However, for those dancers not aware of it, I'd like to show you some fun and good square dance knowledge you can gain using a free web based program available to anyone. A phone app version is also available.

It's called Taminations and is a program that contains definitions of square dance movements with animated pictograms to demonstrate them. It also contains a "sequencer" which allows you to type in a call and watch the dancers execute it. Then type in another and another and so on. The timing is very similar to how we dance. Let me elaborate:

Where is it?

In your internet address bar type in www.tamtwirlers.org/taminations

OR - Google search for Taminations

For smartphones, look for Taminations in your app store.

Who runs it?

It was created and is maintained by Brad Christie from the Tam Twirlers Square Dance Club in California. It's not affiliated with any dance or caller organisation but does use the universally accepted Callerlab definitions. It is widely used by callers and dancers alike to check definitions and traffic patterns of the movements. I, like many callers, can attest to being bailed up by a dancer with a smartphone pointing out something they checked on Taminations!

Once you have opened the program. You'll see the "Welcome to Taminations" page as in the diagram below:

Taminations

WELCOME TO TAMINATIONS

Here you will find animations for square dance calls from Mainstream through C-3B. Most calls have several animations from different starting positions. Taminations are written and maintained by Brad Christie, webmaster of the Tam Twirlers Square Dance Club.

Taminations is not affiliated with CALLERLAB. For official and complete definitions, refer to the CALLERLAB documents. For Challenge definitions, the web site and books by Vic Ceder are another important reference.

TAMINATIONS - Dance on your computer!

The section on the left (in the red outline) allows you to select what level you are interested in eg: Mainstream.

Click on the level and you see this screen:

On this next page you will see a list of movements on the left. Just click on a movement and you see the dancers ready to go and the full definition on the right of screen.

Now, press the "Play" button circled in the above diagram ...

TAMINATIONS - Dance on your computer!

The dancers execute the movement!

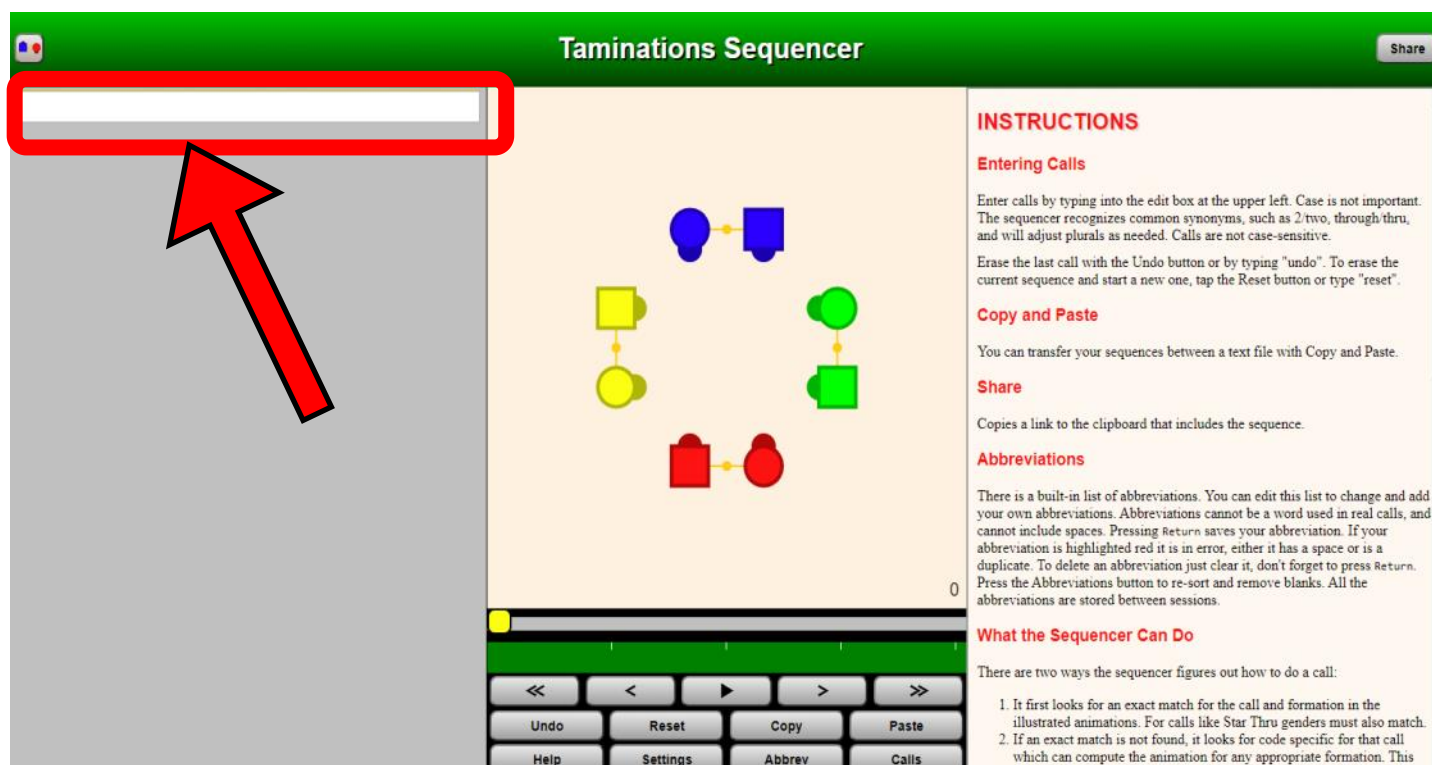

By trying different starting formations on the left of screen you can see the movement executed from these set ups. Explore the screen and see other options available.

Now the real fun part - the Sequencer!

Go back to the home screen by clicking on the little icon in the top left of screen.

At the bottom of the screen on the left you'll see a button called "Sequencer". Click it to arrive this next screen:

From the page called "Taminations Sequencer" you can enter calls in the box at the top left (highlighted above) and hit "Enter" after each one. (Note you need to start with HEADS or SIDES then the movement for the first call so the program knows who to move). The dancers will dance the move. Then enter another call and hit enter. Again they dance. The fun part comes when you have entered a few calls, you can hit the "play" button and they dance all the moves without stopping. So, try and make a dance work by entering call after call. The program will tell you if it won't work. If you want a real test, try yourself by getting people back to their corner.

Use other buttons like Undo and Reset to clear entries.

Just have fun - these dancers won't complain!
