PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

The Basic Fun Moves Dance put on by Scotty Scott and John Casey at the Buffalo Hall, Salisbury was better attended than expected and was a rollicking event, those who were not smiling when they left were laughing. A very good time was had by learner's and mainstream alike, a ripper of a day time event, rough luck for those who missed it. We are looking at 3 or 4 of these events per year.

Adelaide Outlaws 37th birthday was an event not to be missed, Outlaws put on a very good show which was thoroughly enjoyed by myself and everyone else who attended I would expect nothing less from Outlaws.

Paddle Steamers 14th birthday for a country club quite an achievement, getting a hall big enough for the party will always be a problem, only country people can put on a party with good country tucker in an incredible country style.

Weda Helawi Dance, Keith Letridge at his best, ordinal poems, yarns and versatile calls, Keith is an outstanding entertainer, the tucker at Port Parham was as usual, the very best of the best. Thank you, Port Parham.

Saturday 19th November at 3pm the Society will be having there Christmas Dance at the R.A.O.B Hall, 30 Orange Ave Salisbury. Tickets are available, call or text Karen Dempsey on 0411 619 680 $10 pre booked or $15 at the door and the starting time will be 3pm until 7pm hope to see you there.

Thank you

Murray Dempsey

63rd ANSDC Adelaide 2023 – This is the name of our new Convention App! It's available now as a free download in the Google Play Store for android devices and in the App Store for iPhones and iPads!

This is your portable one-stop shop with lots of information about the Convention including the "Program at a Glance". You'll even see all the callers and cuers as they register. Once the full program is finalised, it will miraculously show in the App, plus you'll be able to see the schedule of any caller or cuer, mark your favourites to make them stand out (with a red star next to their name) and make sure you don't miss their calls as they appear in the programme.

The easiest way for you to download the app is to go to the Convention website www.adelaide2023.com on your smartphone or tablet and touch the "Get the App" button located on the right under the banner image on every page. That will take you to the Google Play Store if you are using an android device, or to Apple's App Store if you are using an iPhone or iPad. Alternatively, you can also search for "63rd ANSDC" in either of the two stores.

The app doesn't collect any of your personally identifiable information whatsoever - no name, phone number, email address etc - nothing! So it's completely safe to download and it's free! Go ahead – it will certainly whet your appetite for what's to come!

Dancers: We're fast approaching 400 registered dancers at the time of writing. If you haven't registered yet, please remember that the price increases at the end of the year. Why not register before then if you'd like to join so many others for this great event. The committee is working really hard to make sure this Convention is truly memorable.

Accommodation: Suggestions as to where you can stay can be viewed or downloaded from our website. The Holiday 1 Tourist Park, which is close to the venue, is generously offering Convention attendees a 15% discount off their normal advertised prices if you contact them directly. It is proving a very popular choice for our dancers.

Marshalls and other Volunteers: If you are happy to spend a small amount of time helping the committee during the Convention, please let us know. In particular we're on the lookout for Marshalls to control the Round Ups during the evening sessions. As a Marshall, you also help to find dancers to fill squares, so there's sometimes the opportunity to fill a vacancy yourself if nobody else is available in time. If you can help us out during part of any evening session, please contact our secretary Jenny at secretary@adelaide2023.com. Other volunteers will also be appreciated for a variety of small jobs at various times.

Local services: Our website has information about local services such as medical and dental practices and a variety of nearby food outlets. Bordering the venue carpark is an ALDI store on Kings Road and a restaurant/pub on Martins Road, plus shopping malls are a short drive away.

It's getting closer! The committee can't wait to see you all in Adelaide in April next year.

20th-24th April 2023

The excitement and anticipation is mounting and it might just be time to explain a couple of things regarding the upcoming Convention.

Perhaps one of the more spectacular features of a National Square Dance Convention is the Dressed Set Parade. It's scheduled next year for Saturday evening 22nd April 2023. If you haven't been to a National before, you may be wondering what all the fuss is about!

Imagine, if you will, twenty or more squares of dancers parading onto the floor, with each square in matching outfits, dancing two singing calls and then parading off the floor, allowing for great photo opportunities. Traditionally there are two fairly easy singing calls in the Dressed Set bracket. The choreography is published a couple of months before the Convention so that callers can have a few practice sessions with their dancers to make sure all will be perfect on the night! So even if you are only a recent mainstream graduate you'll have no trouble at all dancing in the Dressed Set bracket and it's so much fun to be a part of it.

Your club or group can decide amongst yourselves what outfits to wear. You can, if you want, choose outfits that match the theme of the Convention - in our case this is 50's Rock 'n' Roll - or you can wear your club colours or any other design. The choice is yours. If you have some creative person in the club who is handy with a sewing machine, they may be willing to put their skills to work so that you can strut your stuff in their creations. Just between you and me, the Convention Committee chose to take themselves off to a rock and roll shop where the girls went wild, choosing matching outfits (as shown below). Another important consideration when choosing what to wear at a Convention is the regulation (set by the National Conventions Board) regarding heel sizes, ladies. For various reasons (protecting the floor and also the safety and consideration of your fellow dancers), it is important to ensure that your heels are a minimum 25mm (1 inch) long in all dimensions. We ask that you respect this rule for the duration of the Convention. So put your thinking caps on and select a contact person in your set to let us know as soon as you can, once you decide to join in the Dressed Set Parade next year.

The Committee Dressed Set

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS

Hi everyone. Thanks to everyone who came along and helped us celebrate our 37th Birthday in September. A wonderful, colourful crowd and thanks also to visiting callers Scotty, Jeff, Ian and Ros. Congratulations to our dancers who were awarded their Life membership and received their 10yr star: Shirley, Helen, Karen & Carl. A special mention to the large contingent from Mt Gambier who travelled all the way to join us. Check out the photos and videos on our website.

Hallowe'en would have just been held and we hope you all enjoyed our pumpkin soup tea, special treats and the great fun atmosphere that this night brings.

Coming up in November will be our AGM to be held on Mon November 14th. As is our custom, we'll be providing scones jam and cream. The short meeting will be held during the supper break with minimum disruption to the dancing. Please come along and thank all the helpers we've had during the year.

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS 37th BIRTHDAY - SEPT 26TH 2022

Hi Everyone,

We can travel around the country side visiting all the Square Dancing Clubs for their birthday and there have been a few, Paddle Steamers 14th birthday, and coming up, Kannella Squares 47th birthday, and Pine City 39th birthday, wishing you all a very happy birthday. Attended the Paddle Steamers at Victor Harbour last Saturday, and it was such a beautiful day, the country side still green, and having an early picnic, and then celebrating with dancing, and enjoying the food. It was good to see Les Tulloch just about back to his usual self, and all of the other callers who attended, Les, Ros, Jeff Graham, Ian, John and Scott. Quite a few of our club members were there too, and it was good to see quite a few sets on the floor.

Have got the Weda Helawi dance coming up on the Saturday 15th October at the Port Parham Social club, starting at 6pm with dinner, own cost, and then the dance session ($10p.p), and Special Guest Keith Lethbridge, a renowned bush poet and entertainer from Perth. You are even able to camp overnight in the carpark if you desire.

In our own club, it has been quiet with Chris Woods and Linda Wasylenko celebrating their birthdays on the same day, (Linda being the younger one lol) and Chris Turner on 16th hoping you all celebrated in your own special ways with family and friends, and get totally spoilt, like I did!!

On Thursday 27th October, it's our Halloween Dance and Karen and Scotty would like everyone to dress up, (I won't have to.....I'm scary enough!!) so dust those brooms, and we'll see you there.

See you on the dance floor, stay safe and keep well.

Linda W

We are pleased that Ian Rutter is back, not only doing a call for us but able to dance again. We send our best wishes to Mick for a speedy recovery from his heart surgery and also to Ros for her upcoming operation, hope that goes well. Get well wishes also to those away with Covid. Please check the flyer for our upcoming combined dinner. All welcome.

It is always a welcome sight to have dancers from other clubs come & join us while on holiday. Deidre & Guy and Wendy & Ken were dancing with us recently.

Several Paddle Steamer's members attended the Learners Dance at Salisbury which was organised by John & Scotty. This was an innovative concept & certainly benefitted those who attended.

It is so generous when your sister offers to come & collect you from 20 kms away for a Fri dance night when your car is out of action.

You can't keep a good caller down, evidently!!!! Welcome back, Les

Our birthday on 8th October was held at the Lutheran Church Centre Victor Harbor. This venue provides all the facilities that are required for a larger group of dancers.

On the day it was sensational to view all the sailor apparel worn by the guests. The 'display corner' included boats, parrots, an anchor, compass, nets & navy jackets. Who would have known that the 'blow up' pirate doll had an owner & they were prepared to bring it along!!! The 'all in' callers, finale didn't disappoint. Thanks Les, John, Scotty, Jeff & Graham for a brilliant end to a fantastic day. Once again, we all had an enjoyable birthday.

Gail

Another successful Festival has been held with quite a few from Victoria attending. I must congratulate the organisers for the great work they did over 2 ½ days, they worked tirelessly, keeping us well fed & watered. Also to the Cuers who kept the dancers on the floor. What a feast of dancing and workshops. It was great to have Paula and Warwick again to present the workshops. Congratulations to Les & Anne for winning the Choreographers Showcase. As Les was released from hospital only the day before, it didn't stop him attending, although [which hurt] he wasn't able to dance, it was performed by Alison and Phillip from Victoria. It was a sad day for me when I cues my last dance for my last Festival as age will have truly passed my use by date. What a wonderful life I have had over the years since 1986 doing both Round and Square Dancing. So now it is only a few short weeks to our Xmas break ups to look forward to

Once again we wish Les another speedy recovery for yet another return to hospital. Till next time

We surprised Jeff with a birthday gift as we sang to him the night before his birthday. Although we have lost a few Learners, mainly due to work commitments, we have others joining us. Hope they are able to come regularly.

We will have had our animal themed dance by the time this goes to print. Hopefully Kevin will have recovered and will be back dancing with us again.

The combined dinner with Kannella Squares is coming up soon. Please contact Linda on 0412634938 for your ticket.

Pat

Congratulations to Adelaide Outlaws, Paddle Steamers, Pine City Twirlers, in SA and Victorian clubs on recent birthday celebrations. Your photos on facebook look really amazing showing everyone enjoying themselves. Great to see.

Our group were invited to the Kingston SE of SA show over the October long week to dance for the audience. After a rather frustrating start with the sound system we finally were up and running.

The day went very well with 2 brackets danced for the audiences during the day. The weather was Brilliant, with sunshine and no wind or rain. They really turned it on for us.

A huge thankyou to all of our dancers involved, you looked amazing in black and white.

Thankyou to Leanne for music maestro and husband Michael as photographer for the day.

There may be some photos appear in the roundup.

As we roll on towards xmas already, enjoy the celebrations, stay healthy and safe travels if you are on the roads.

Happy dancing, keep safe.
