PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

Happy New Year to everyone and I hope you all enjoyed yourselves with family and friends. The old year is gone and the New Year 2023 is well and truly underway.

The National Convention will be in Adelaide this year in April, it gives everyone a good chance to attend and experience a National without a lot of travel, it will be good times and sore feet for all.

Wild Frontiers celebrate their 50th Birthday on February the 18th, Gold Theme with a golden event 50 years with the same caller and quite a lot of interesting history behind them. Well done Jeff Seidel for a tremendous effort.

The State Convention will be held at Echunga this year. The society is now looking for a convenor for 2024 so if your club is interested in running 2024 convention now is the time to put your hand up and express an interest, individuals are also welcome to have a go.

Thank you

Murray Dempsey

OUTLAWS

Firstly a huge thankyou to Scotty for filling in at short notice to call for the Mon Xmas dinner dance last year. Graham was unwell and by all reports, the night went well. Thanks also to Les and Anne for dropping in, and to all who came and enjoyed the dinner and the dancing.

And so we find ourselves in 2023! With the recent graduates now part of our Mainstream group, we opened up mid January to typical warm summer nights. Thank goodness for the air-conditioners. Our annual Aussie night was held on the second week back and we hope you enjoyed the sausage/salad meals and the night of dancing to Australian music. Thanks for dressing the part too.

In this month of February we are starting our next learners' intake and look forward to welcoming new people into our wonderful activity. Always an exciting time!

Our Valentine's night comes up mid February. Dress in red & white and enjoy an evening of love songs.

On the horizon we have our annual St Patrick's Spud feast coming in March and look forward to a fun Irish themed green night. Please book for your spud meal before the dance.

Diggers Delights Christmas dance

Hi Everyone,
And a Happy New Year to all of our fellow Square Dancers. All of the Christmas decorations have been put away again until next Christmas, and New Year's Celebrations have gone with all of our hangovers as well.

It has been very quiet within our club this month, as we won't be reopening until Thursday 16th of February with our Valentine's Day Dance, when Scotty returns with Yen from overseas. However, some of the dancers have been visiting other clubs that are open. We all enjoyed the Christmas break up and also celebrated Karen's birthday, along with Marcia.

Plans are underway for our next State Convention at Echunga, and with our National here in Adelaide looming in three months' time, we have a lot to look forward to this year.

Murray and Trevor decided to have a coffee and chat at the Saints Shopping Centre, where other dancers have been meeting on Thursday mornings at 10am. Unfortunately have been unable to attend as yet, but will next week, and will find out all of the gossip then.

To those who have been travelling during the holidays, happy safe travels, and to those enjoyed the summer heat stay safe too.

Happy birthday to those who have celebrated their birthdays this month, and look forward to catching up with everyone soon.

Happy New Year with lots of New Year resolutions which are made to be broken.....

Linda W

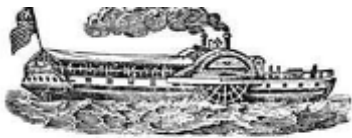

Everyone enjoyed themselves on our breakup night, with Jeff and Ian calling. The ham at supper was very tasty and Angela Nicholls made a lovely Christmas Pudding for dessert.

A good time was had by all at the combined New Year's Eve dance. Thank you Mick for cooking the bbq and many thanks to all those who helped with setting up, making salads, serving etc., thanks to everyone who stayed and helped clean up at the end of the night.

We are looking forward to attending Wild Frontier's 50th birthday on 18th February, hope to see many of you there.

Happy New Year.

THE PADDLE STEAMER SQUARES DANCE CLUB INC.

We are always delighted to have visitors attend our Fri dances & recently welcomed Noel & Ashleigh, Trevor, Di-anne & Brian.

Penny & Norma had an amazing short holiday to Eyre Peninsula with impressive accommodation & an alcohol free trip or maybe not!!!

Audrey & Steve are in the real estate cycle of selling their house & purchasing another.

Our final dance for 2022 was held on 9th Dec. Everyone joined in with the Christmas theme & we welcomed Les back to his official capacity as our resident caller. We congratulate him & Anne on their effort for such a full recovery effort.

The dance sets were entertaining & smooth sailing as everyone contributed towards the theme's festivities. With a Christmas Quiz, John seemed to account for all the questions asked & the peg game went haywire when I thought they all cheated but the contributors related that I didn't explain the rules properly!!!!!!

The raffle took forever with tickets being drawn in consecutive order which were belonging to the same person. They then announced a redraw & the same thing happened again with a different person.

Everyone surpassed themselves with supper contributions e.g. watermelon in Christmas tree shapes, festive chocolates, red jelly slice, shortbread & Heather's absolute masterpiece for us gluten free 'treasures'.

In lieu of Christmas cards, it was delightful to receive gift wrapped chocolate from our every thoughtful, Ros.

Enjoy your Christmas break & we'll be here for another round & join you all in 2023.

I hope everyone had a very happy Christmas and that 2023 will be a good year for everyone. I wasn't able to attend our break up dinner at the Windsor Hotel as I had another commitment but those who attended had an enjoyable time. Thanks Linda for arranging it.

Our combined New Year's Eve bbq tea and dance was well attended. Thanks to Mick from Kannella Squares for cooking the bbq and thanks to Murray for assisting. Thanks also to Linda, Karen, Carolyn, Jane for all their help, hopefully I haven't missed anyone, my apologies if I have. Ian called a couple of times which gave Jeff the chance to sit and have a chat. Thank you Lois for donating the raffle prizes. There is an old saying "Many hands make light work" and that was true when it came to clearing up at 12.30 am. We are now looking forward to our 50th Birthday which will be held on Saturday 18th February, please join us for this momentous occasion, we will be closed on Friday 17th.

Wishing everyone a happy, healthy 2023.

Our Christmas dinner and final dance in 2022 went off with a bang! We all ate a fair share of Christmas dinner consisting of roast chicken and a variety of delicious home made salads. Then polished it off with Christmas pudding, ice cream and custard. Lets just say if you weren't there you missed out on some good food!

All of our dancers have had a deserved break and are straight back into it for 2023. Scootbacks also has started a learners class with some new faces joining us this year and lets just say there was lots of laughter going on as Trevor showed them some of the basics. We thank Trevor for helping us out with another learners class, we do appreciate it!

There are a few special nights coming up and we look forward to having fun and keeping this great activity alive.

Feel free to come and join us!
