PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Everyone,

St. Patrick's Day March 17th is here, a day for the wearing the mightily greens. A good time and plenty of great Irish tucker, spuds with whatever takes your fancy.

Digger's Delight's 4th birthday on April 1st to be held at the Buffalo Hall, Orange Ave Salisbury, look for the flyers.

Easter a time to enjoy with the kids with there chocolate eggs and the religious significance of the occasion. I trust those of you who take to the roads for Easter will take care so that we may all enjoy ourselves over the Easter break.

The National Convention April 20th to 24th it is coming on quickly. I trust that those that are going are well prepared for the spectacular event it will surely be. Rock on Adelaide 2023.

Wild Frontiers 50th Birthday it was good to see the Victorians show up, it shows the respect and admiration held for the oldest club in South Australia, that people from interstate come to show Wild Frontiers and Jeff Seidel what they think of the effort and well done, congratulations and a job well done by all.

Thank you

Murray Dempsey

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS Hi It's been a fun and interesting start to 2023 at the Outlaws.

After the Aussie BBQ and dance in January, we launched our new learners' class on Feb 6th. We were pleasantly surprised by the significant number of new people who came to try. It was a great atmosphere and a nice mix of ages.

Our Valentine's Dinner Dance came next which coincided with the second night of new learners and, as is often the case, we had some new people join us and some who didn't return after the first night. All in all, still a good number of new people. The night was opened with a dinner from Ivy's Kitchen and to manage the two groups (Learners and Mainstream) we had two sittings for dinner.

The music program was of course love songs and thanks to everyone who dressed in red and made it the fun night that it was. It was also great to see Tony Bowring and Doona from Victoria drop in. We did enjoy dancing to Tony's calling.

As a bonus for the night we also had some pre-loved square dance clothing for sale, and some bargains were quickly snatched up.

Coming up next will be our St Patrick's Spud night and you'll need to book with us to enjoy a spud. Also - dress in green and we'll use some Irish music on the night to dance to.

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS VALENTINES - FEB 2023

THE PADDLE STEAMER SQUARES DANCE CLUB INC.

Welcome back to 2023 dancing. Here's to hoping you all had a wonderful festive season.

We have heaps of members with January birthdays & also people with birthdays on the same day. Brian even came dancing on the actual day of his birthday. He just couldn't keep away from all of us lovely club members!!!

Penny & Norma returned from their cruise pretty unscathed, although some hotels were a little under par, the Monkey Jungle saw monkeys jumping & attaching themselves to their backs & there was also the meeting with a couple who had a holiday house in Victor Harbor. Guess which one stubbed their toe on a chair & had her $30 watch destroyed when they were caught in a downpour while in Singapore???

A recent theme night was 'Cattle Cup' but we changed it to Australia Day because we didn't know what the 'Cattle Cup' related to. Anyway, we had, as usual, members all decked out in red, blue & white, Aussie hats & shirts. It was a shame that the person who had to bring the Australia Day theme decorations, as Deidre was on holiday, turned up in a white shirt & maroon skirt. Guess you could say, she's 'lost the plot'!!!!!!

Our long-standing caller was with us for his first 2023 'gig' albeit looking much different due to necessary health & wellbeing changes. He is so aware of all dancers!!! Invariably, one of them, selects the wrong circulate option but on this occasion, Les commented, 'You got it right!!!' when the dancer achieved the accurate move.

Our latest theme night was for Valentine's Day. We all looked very 'romantic' in our red & white gear holding our various hearts while posing for a photo. Ros gave us a brilliant choreography to the song 'Everyone's Making It Big But Me' originally sung by Dr Hook. John did likewise with his selection of music being upbeat & certainly entertaining. We do appreciate the planning, effort & presentation that all our callers provide.

Gail

Digger's Delight's

Hi Everyone,

And it's good to be back, with our first Square Dance for the year this week for St. Valentines on Thursday 16th. With both Scotty and Yen back from their overseas holiday, and both looking well and 'relaxed', here's to another year of dancing.

The Thursday catchups were a great success, and gave our members a chance to continue to participate with others in a fun filled atmosphere at various joints around Adelaide, especially highlighted was the day trip to Glenelg which was enjoyed by everyone who attended despite the lousy weather.

Happy Birthdays to those who celebrated their birthdays, with Joyce on 17th January, Jasmine 25th, Brian on 27th (more about this one later), Allan and Doreen on 31st, Dianne and Mal on 3rd February, and Glenys on 14th Valentine baby. Brian had a special birthday this year in attaining his 70th which was celebrated on the 11th February with fellow Digger's helping him celebrate.

Our club will also be celebrating our 4th Birthday on 1st April, at the R.A.O.B Hall in Orange Ave Salisbury, and there will be a flyer about it in this issue of the Round Up.

Also, congratulations to Wild Frontiers 50th Birthday on 18th February, and everyone is welcome to attend and help Jeff Seidel celebrate, this wonderful milestone.

With the National on the 20th – 24th April fast approaching, and then the State Convention at Echunga in August, there is so much to look forward to with renewing friendships made over the years, and making new ones, and generally having an enjoyable time to boot.

Looking forward to catching up with everyone on Thursday, and in the meantime, have a wonderful St. Valentine's Day.....

SUNDAY MORNING IS OLD TIME DANCING TO MUSIC

I am writing this still recovering from a great night of dancing, fun and friendship celebrating our club's 50th birthday. It was wonderful to see so many people enjoying themselves. A big thank you to Jeff for the dedication he has shown, not only to Wild Frontier and Kannella Squares, but to the Society, and Callers Association, which was acknowledged by Murray Dempsey as he presented Jeff with a gift on behalf of the Society. April also presented a gift on behalf of Wild Frontier. Thanks to all those who helped with decorating the hall and with clearing up afterwards. The callers Jeff, Scotty, Les, Graham, Ian, Ros and the surprise of the night Janet Cook (Jeff didn't know she was coming) did a fantastic job, Les got in first with Golden Memories, which other callers had on their play list, Ian did manage to find a different song with Gold in it. Joining us were 5 visitors from Acey Squares, Bob Lockett from Renmark, and other interstate guests who have danced with us before. Great to see them again. A very tasty supper was enjoyed by all. Thanks to April for organising the platters and birthday cake and to everyone who brought something to share. A night to remember, hopefully other clubs will one day get to celebrate a 50th birthday.

2023 is looking good at Scootbacks with our few new dancers who are very eager to dance which is great to see! We also have a young lady, Alyssa come back to square dancing and doing some revision while the learners are learning. Welcome back Alyssa!

With the weather warming up we are putting the halls fans and aircon to work and at times we need to dance to keep warm!

Our odd sock night went off well with mostly everyone wearing odd socks which added to the night and some people needed to make it obvious but were very creative!

We will be closed on the 10th of March for the long weekend and we will be having our easter dance on the 31st of march. I can taste the chocolate already!!

Keep cool,

De square Lady

After the holiday break we're very happy to be back dancing again. We're also keen to welcome our new Beginner dancers to the Club and hope that they really enjoy our dancing and friendship.

A few Club members recently stayed in the nearby town of Nelson for a couple of nights and enjoyed a quiet, social time away together.

We hope all Clubs are back dancing again after the holiday break and wish you enjoyable dancing in 2023.

Happy twirling.

Linley.
