PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Presidents Report

Hi everyone, At the time of writing Anne & I am preparing to travel to the USA to attend 50th Roundalab Convention and the 75th American National Square dance convention. As a Caller & Cuers this is the trip of a lifetime and we will be both performing at both functions so please excuse us for being a little distracted over the past few weeks.

Unfortunately due to the lack of callers available we have had to cancel the Winter Wonderland Dance. Due to the timing of submission to the round Up editor publicity had already gone out by the time the decision was made. Therefore we apologise for the late notice and any inconvenience caused.

This makes the next SASDS function the state convention in Loxton. We are all looking forward to travelling up and being entertained by our feature caller Chris Froggatt from NSW. Whilst the early bird has passed it is never too late to register.

Congratulations to Acey Squares in Naracoorte who are celebrating their 20th Birthday this month. This is an outstanding achievement for a country club with no resident caller and I am looking forward once again to attending this memorable event, hope to see you all there too.

Regards.

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS

Our new learners' class is now up and running and we welcome another group of new dancers to our activity. Thanks to all who helped in promotion and those who come early to help by dancing in the learners' brackets.

In June we held our British Night in celebration of the King's Birthday. Great to see everyone dressed in red, white & blue for the event and the images of double decker buses and Big Ben decorating the stage. Thanks to Dawn for arranging the "high tea" supper which also included delicious items brought by dancers. Thankyou. The night's dancing of course consisted of British music. We were also delighted to welcome returning visitor Margaret from Victoria on the night.

In July our next theme night will be the French Night to coincide with Bastille Day. See the advert for details. Red, white and blue again will work for outfits and see if you can find yourself a beret to set it off. A croissant supper will be provided so we look forward to saying "Bonsoir" to you when you join us.

Looking ahead, keep an eye out for information on our 41st Birthday coming up on Monday 28th September.

ADELAIDE OUTLAWS BRITISH NIGHT JUNE 2026

Hi everyone. I heard that it was a successful Convention. There was a great tribute to Brian Hotsckies "Polka Dot Bikini." One of the callers removed his towel near the end revealing Brian's Polka Dot Bikini. Richard Muir wrote and called a Thank You to Brians song.

The week after Launceston Club celebrated their 75th Birthday with 200 people attending which was a great achievement.

Numbers have been down due to dancers being sick and on holidays.

The soup night was a good night, enjoyed with homemade soups and crusty bread. Thank you Caroline and Linda for supplying those.

Greg and David celebrated their birthdays with a yummy banana cake made by Greg's wife Sue, lucky man!

We had a surprise visit from Denise, we hadn't seen Denise for quite a while. Ingrid and been missing for a while, welcome back.

A, Big Thank You to Ivan Ian, Les and Ros for calling.

Dates coming up, 17th July International Foods different foods of the world. If dancers could bring their favourite cuisine along for everyone to share and enjoy.

Happy Dancing from Linda

Hi All,

We welcomed visiting dancers Ivan and Sandy back to the Club again.

We're looking forward to our first ever Christmas in July. Our fund raising BBQs at Bunnings allow the Club to provide many social activities throughout the year.

Our Beginners are close to finishing learning all of the Mainstream moves. Special mention goes to Rob and Daryl who travel from Millicent every week.

Happy twirling.

Linley.

Greetings from South Australia's newest club. I've been very slack contributing to Round Up as we started in September last year.

Bev & Graham Burgan moved to Whyalla with the intent of reinstating Square Dancing. With the Support of Shirley & David Gabb, Jenny Spratt, Robyn & Richard Bolt, Lynette Steele and Kristie McCutcheon from the closed Whyalla Twirlers, we launched a learners' class in September 2025 at the Whyalla Uniting Church Hall with 10 beginners including two children (10 & 13).

While we have had over 40 registered members in the past twelve months, with the retirement of Shirley & David (much missed) and turnover due to illnesses & Injury we have only managed to maintain one square each week with the occasional mainstream tip. After visiting the club while travelling through Whyalla, George Mayhew has become a regular mainstream dancer travelling each Monday night from and to Lincoln.

A special thankyou to George for running the club for 4 weeks while Bev & Graham attended National Convention in Hobart. We currently have 2 Plus, 6 Mainstream, 5 expected to officially graduate at our first birthday in September, and 3 new starters for "50 move mainstream" and about 6 on illness, injury or pregnancy leave.

A special thanks to Graham Elliott for providing all the recordings for our learner's classes.

We are thrilled as a small rural city club to have 8 members registered to attend the State Convention at Loxton in August.

We would love to see a large contingent of dancers come to support this fledgling new club at its 1st birthday on September 12th, 2026.

We are still planning but intend to have "caller" dancing Saturday afternoon 2-4pm with a club catered dinner at 5.30 followed by dancing from 7pm till late. Please keep the date free and plan a weekend holiday in Whyalla to support us celebrate 12 months as a new club.

Graham Burgan- Club Coordinator & President.

Magill Diamonds A Level Group

Just a short note this time. We only danced for 2 weeks in June but had some tricky Choreography last Saturday for the Full A2 dancers. I may need to 'Vet it' a bit better next time.

The learners are going well with A2. They have learnt 13 moves already.

We will be having about 6 weeks off as I am having a knee operation. When we return we will need to revise and consolidate before learning anything new.

Anne made me a lovely Get Well card that everyone signed – Thank you all.

Happy Dancing

Ros Turnbull

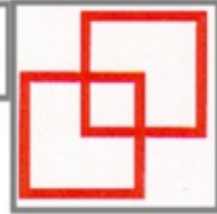

Dancing together week by week develops a community spirit. It adds value to the time we spend. Recently, dancers brought plants and produce to share with one another, or to sell. And we had a visit from Eva, Karen and Murray's new granddaughter. [See photograph.] She was so relaxed she didn't mind being held by new people.

On the dancing front, the next special is the Kaniva weekend, which means no dancing at Salisbury on 9th July.
