PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Presidents Report

Hi everyone, by now you may have seen the flyers promoting square dancing on Facebook. The flyers are being professionally produced and look good, modern with Australian content most of which was obtained from the National Convention in Hobart. It is only early days yet but we hope these flyers will help improve the image of square dancing.

On the back of this promotion we encourage clubs to run learners classes, remembering that the Square Dance Society can help with a subsidy towards your advertising costs for your class.

From a state point of view our Publicity Officer is planning events such as flash mobs in shopping centres, come and try dances with an emphasis on families all with a view to getting square dancing into the public eye. So please if you are asked, we need your help and support to promote square dancing as a exciting modern day activity and a means towards a healthy lifestyle.

I am also pleased to release preliminary details of our 50th State Convention to be held 27th to 29th August 2027. The theme is of course "gold". The venue is the Macedonian Hall, 142-148 Crittenden Road Findon and the feature caller is Alan Evans from Queensland. So we look forward to a big celebration of 50 years of conventions in SA.

Regards.

Les Tulloch

During August it was lovely to have Russell and Jill with us from NZ. Some of us travelled to the Limestone Coast to join Acey Squares for their 20th Birthday weekend at Naracoorte. This is quite an achievement for a regional club with no resident caller and we salute them. I'm sure it was a great weekend. Then we headed to Loxton for the State Convention weekend.

In this month of September we will celebrate Fathers' Day with a suitably blue theme, a savoury supper, some well crafted "Dad Jokes" and songs. We hope you can join us.

Near the end of the month we hold our 41st Birthday celebration!

Please join us for a Country & Western themed night and dress the part. All details are on the flyer in this edition. Love to see you all there. We'd love your help to mark this occasion with a whole lot of fun. See what you can come up with for an outfit. It is a basket supper too but please, no baked beans!
