State Convention Report

I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to Scotty, Doug, Ingrid, Dylis & Murray for helping me run the State Convention in Loxton this year a job well done by all you should be so proud of yourself. Even though Dylis couldn't make it she is still part of the committee. Thank you to Chris Froggart for a wonderful weekend in calling for us to enjoy dancing too.

We had 10 callers that took part in the weekend calling for us from Friday night until Sunday afternoon. They came from New South Wales, Victoria & South Australia so a big thank you to Chris Froggart our guest caller, Ralph Weise, Janet Cook, Jaden Frigo, Graham Elliott, Ian Rutter, Les Tulloch, Ros Turnbull, Ivan Cooke & Scotty Scott. I think if the dancers had their way you would have been calling all day on Sunday until midnight, they just didn't want to go home so well done to the callers thank you for entertainment them.

I would also like to take the opportunity for all the helpers in the kitchen like Wendy (Acey), Jane (Magill Diamonds), Shirley (Pine City Twirlers), Judy (Sunset Twirlers) plus Murray cutting up all those onions on Sunday morning for the BBQ. If I have left everyone out, I'm sorry but it was a busy weekend but I do appreciate your help as well.

I would like to say a big thank you to all the dancers that come to Loxton for the State Convention. We had beautiful weather for the weekend of dancing.

For a small town like Loxton, they know how to give donations for raffle prizes & donating food like the Country Bakehouse run by Julie & Tim thank you for your donation in food for the weekend. Thank you to Donna from the Murray River Queen that we had dinner on the Friday night what a wonderful job them did serving 66 meals.

I'm looking forward to the 50th State Convention in Findon Adelaide where I don't have to work so hard.

Thank you
Karen Dempsey
Convenor

Caller's

Scotty, Ralph (Vic), Chris (N.S.W), Janet (Vic), Jaden (Vic), Les, Ian, Ivan, Ros & Graham

We lose one caller Janet all the last day

We had Sonya Atschwager (Councillor in Loxton) agreed to open the 49th State Convention for us. Plus we had Sue Soong singing the Australian Anthem

Friday night dinner on The Murray River Queen

BBQ Lunch

Shirley from (P.C.T) helping with the soup dinner.

There was others helping out in the kitchen all weekend so a big thank you to all

Last day of the Convention

Dinner for the Interstate caller's & just to say thank you for coming

September saw our annual Fathers' Day dance roll around and it was great to see a good number of dancers coming along to the support the function.

The floor was a sea of blue outfits and we danced to some "father/dad" themed songs. Thanks to those who contributed to the basket supper and to Dawn for providing some great savouries. Of course the night was completed by the groans coming from the floor as Dad jokes were made during the dance sessions. What more could you ask?

We have been "on the road" with a few events in the country recently including Naracoorte's Acey Squares 20th Birthday, the State Convention at Loxton and a visit to Steel City Squares in Whyalla for their first Birthday. It was really nice to see their dancers graduate after learning via recordings from the Outlaws.

All were great weekends and the sunny Spring weather was a treat too.

We also welcomed Deniece and David from New Mexico in the USA to our Plus club mid September for a night.

Our 41st Birthday would have just been held and we'll have some photos and a report on that wonderful evening in the next edition of Round Up.

Hi everyone welcome to our club news

Both our classes Mainstream and Plus have now concluded.

Congratulations to Alan, Lynn & Greg who have completed the mainstream class and will graduate on 15 September.

Our plus class have completed the traditional plus list along with the 8 former advanced movements.

We will be starting a new mainstream learners class on 6 October, with new dancers welcome to start any Tuesday in October. Also there is complimentary admission to new dancers during October. Please see our advertisement in this edition for more details.

September was our fathers day dance with complimentary Bailey's Irish Creme. Thank you to all who participated in the theme by wearing a bright Tie or Hat and sharing supper.

Next will be our Halloween Dance on 27th October, again see our advertisement for more details.

Happy Dancing

Anne & Les Tulloch

Sad news, Wendy is back in hospital. We wish her a Sincere Speedy Recovery and hopefully see her back on the dance floor soon.

International Food night, wow, not only did we have a banquet of different foods, but we also had the pleasure and company of Dawn and Graham, Yen and Scotty, Roselinda and Steven.

A big Thank you to Graham, Ian, Ivan and Scotty for calling on the International Food night and Les back from holidays.

We have Colin Dandridge coming over from Melbourne calling for the 25th and 26th of September, which includes Mainstream, Plus, A's and C's.

It's that time of the year again, the AGM on the 9th of October and also, we will celebrate Halloween.

Happy Dancing from Linda

Hi All,

For those of us who travel away for dancing it has been an extremely busy time.

Acey Squares Birthday at Naracoorte was very enjoyable and also the first chance for some of our dancers who have just finished learning the Mainstream moves to dance at another Club and to live and different callers. (Rather than recordings.)

The State Convention at Loxton was a time to dance, catch up with friends and be a tourist.

Five of our dancers were lucky enough to be on holidays near Whyalla when Steele City Squares were celebrating their First Birthday. It was a really enjoyable day and we wish them many more years of happy dancing .

At home four new Beginners have just started and they seem very keen. We hope to get a few more to join them.

Happy twirling.

Linley.

Magill Diamonds A Level Group

We have had a big break mostly due to my knee op. We only danced 2 weeks in 2 months. My knee is going well and I am back dancing.

I heard from some Victorians that one of our newer A dancers, Kerry did a fantastic job dancing A level at Yarrawonga. Considering she had not completed A2 and had a very quick run down on moves still to learn, I think she did an amazing job. She studied the definitions herself and deserves the credit. Thank you to those who helped her.

Thank you to Jaden for calling 30mins of A level on the Sunday morning of the State Convention and to Scotty for allowing us to fit this in on the weekends.

Colin Dandridge will be sharing a mainstream night with me on Friday the 25th. On the 26th he will be calling A level from 2pm to 4.30pm and Mainstream and Plus in the evening from 7.30pm.

We are all looking forward to this so please come and support Colin and Magill Diamonds.

Happy Dancing

Ros Turnbull

My apologies to Scotty, Karen and the dancers of Diggers. I missed the deadline and so there was no report for Diggers last month. The three things to highlight are the Kaniva Weekend, the State Convention, and the Fathers Day dance.

As promised two months ago, here is a report on the Kaniva weekend. It was written by someone who was there!

Kaniva weekend began in excellent fashion with a meal Thursday night at the Commercial Hotel being enjoyed by dancers from both sides of the border. The food was excellent and we were well taken care of by the local publican. The accommodation at the caravan park was very well maintained with clean rooms and amenities block, and beautiful green lawns.

Friday and Saturday we mostly danced four squares to the dulcet tones of Ralphie Baby and Scotty. They were ably assisted by Ivan Cooke, Ian Rutter, Mark Collins and Bernie.

When not on stage Ralphie confused the callers by dancing as the right-hand dancer, teaming up with Ingrid who danced on the left. Only trouble was that we couldn't get Ralphie into a skirt.

The weekend included a pancake breakfast provided by Scotty and Ralphie, plus a sausage sizzle fundraiser provided by Kaniva Lions Club. This was followed by an afternoon of a free public introduction to square dancing, which was attended by local Councillors and the mayor.

Sunday evening was an after-party at the cabin of Scotty and Yen – a brilliant end to a brilliant weekend.

Diggers were well represented at the State Convention, which was a really great time, made even better by the gorgeous weather. Thank you to the organizing committee for all their hard work.

Like most clubs our theme for Father's Day was 'Blue'. [See the photograph of the boys in blue!]
