PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi everyone, sorry for the confusion over my report for October 2026. As it turns out it was my fault as I mistakenly sent the wrong file to the editor which was in a format she would not have been able to open. So I have fixed that and requested a copy be sent to all members so hopefully you have it and read it by now.

Great to see lots of dancers travel to Victor Harbor and help Paddlesteamer Squares celebrate their 18th Birthday. I didn't realise how many Surfing (or Beach Boys) songs had been made into square dance music. It was a wonderful afternoon of dancing.

By now we will have had our AGM. This year we listened and scheduled it a week earlier than in previous years to give time to those who travelled to Mt Gambier for Pine City Twirlers Birthday. Thank you to everyone who nominated and/or elected to the committee.

Our Christmas Dance is coming up on Saturday 28th November. In keeping with our practice of alternating North/South, Afternoon/Evening, the event is being held at Marion RSL as an evening dance. Also because it is at the Marion RSL we will be having a catered dinner. Bookings for dinner can be made on the night and EFTPOS is available. More details can be found in either the October or this edition of the Round Up. We look forward to seeing you there.

Regards.

Les Tulloch

We had a visit from Karen, who comes from WA. It was her first time dancing with us, although her husband, Ian, has been a few times. [See photograph of the two Karens.]

Congratulations to Paddlesteamers on their recent birthday dance. Diggers were well represented on the afternoon. [See photograph.]

Our next themed dance will be Halloween on 29th October, followed a fortnight later by our Remembrance Day dance.

Hi all.

On the 26th September we had the privilege of having Colin Dandridge from Victoria call for our A level dancers on the Saturday afternoon. It was also a pleasure to have his partner Rachael join us again.

We had a wonderful afternoon with 1 person short of 2 sets. He taught them 7 new moves, so now it just a matter of consolidating them.

I have provided some photos of the A Dancers with Colin. Unfortunately I did not get a photo of the entire group (I keep forgetting to take photos).

That leaves us with 8 moves to go to complete the full A level program.

Of course we will need lots of practice to consolidate.

The dancers have done extremely well considering some months we only get to dance 1 or 2 weeks. A big Thank You also goes to our experienced A level dancers who are happy to help them through.

Some of us are planning the trip to Red Cliffs in November and hoping to dance the Full A program.

I hope all that attended the various dances with Colin enjoyed themselves.

Happy Dancing

Ros Turnbull

Our 41st Birthday was a wonderful celebration with a nice crowd, many decked out in country & western gear. Monica's contribution to the decorations, including the saddles etc, really helped set the scene. Thanks to all who came and those who contributed to the epic basket supper! Big thanks to our visiting callers; Les Tulloch, Scotty, Ivan Cooke, Ian Rutter and Ros Turnbull - we appreciate you coming and calling for us. Also a big thanks to Les who spoke on behalf of the SA Square Dance Society. Congratulations are in order to Jenny Battersby, Liz French and Iain Neilson for being awarded Life Membership after being members for 10 years and to Alan & Rita, Glenda & Robert and Pauline for gold membership - 20 years as members.

Our Hallowe'en Dance would have just been held and we'll have some pictures of that fun event in the next edition. For now though, thanks to all who came.

At the end of October we also will be travelling down to Mt Gambier for Pine City Twirlers birthday weekend. We wish them a happy Birthday celebration. (Our Mon club will still be open though).

In mid November, a few of us will be travelling to Red Cliffs on the Murray for a dance weekend featuring Gary Winter from Canada, alongside Jaden Frigo and Graham. We will be closed for the Wednesday preceding and the Monday following: Wed 11th & Mon 16th Nov. Check the dates on the ad in this edition.

At the end of November, we will be holding a big 2 week clothing sale at the club - Preloved square dance skirts, blouses and shirts. See the advert for details. Please put these dates in your diaries and spread the word: 23rd & 30th Nov. This is a special opportunity to see a lot of beautiful hand made outfits. all needing a worthy home, and all at bargain proces. All welcome.

Monday November 23rd is also the date of our AGM, an event that will be sweetened by scones jam and cream. and yes, a clothing sale too!

And watch out! Christmas is coming. Our breakup dates will be Mon 21st Dec for Mainstream & Learners and Wed 16th Dec for Plus. More details coming. See the advert this edition.

Hi everyone welcome to our club news

Great to see some of our club dancers (both mainstream & plus) out and about at club birthdays in the past month starting with Adelaide Outlaws 41st birthday.

Then a number of our dancers travelled to Victor Harbour to help Paddlesteamer Squares celebrate their 18th Birthday. A great afternoon of dancing and congratulations on reaching this milestone. Please see the picture below.

Our 2026 learners class has kicked off with one night completed at the time of writing. Although the first night there was was only one new couple. It was good that they had already attended a 3 hour Intro to Square Dance called by Les way back in February as part of the WEA Program, so had no trouble at all. It is still early days yet, hoping the class follows normal trend of increasing numbers over the next few weeks.

Happy Dancing

Anne & Les Tulloch

Wow we have had a busy month at Magill Diamonds. Firstly, there was Father's Day, it was a shame the numbers were down due to people being away, sick and other things on.

It was nice to see Colin Dandridge back, calling Mainstream, Plus and A`s for the weekend in September. This was a very successful weekend. There were dancers from other clubs enjoying his calling. Over 30 people went to the Tower Hotel enjoying their meal and then going back to the hall to dance the night away.

We had our AGM at which the attendance was very appreciated. I'd like to sincerely thank all the committee members, previous and new ones coming on board, April, David, Dane, Carl, Caroline, Clayton, George, Karen, Leslie, Linda, Merv and Michele.

Our Christmas Dinner is going to be held at the Windsor Hotel North East Road Windsor Gardens on the 20th of November. If you would like to join us, please ring Linda on 0412 634 938 for catering purposes.

The Christmas Break up party is on the 11th of December, please bring a plate of supper to share.

Hi All,

We're really looking forward to our 43rd Birthday at the end of October and will be very happy to welcome you for some great dancing, socializing and of course our outstanding suppers. Contact the Secretary if you need a registration form.

We recently held our FOOTY NIGHT where we enjoyed frankfurts or sausages in bread and also dessert. Some dressed in their favourite football club colours. Two of our members challenged themselves to call a dance for the dancers.

Happy twirling. Linley.
